DIAL LITES-TONIGHT

5:30-KHJ-Paul Berg Jr., life scout from Staten Island, N. Y., will represent the National Boy Scouts of America during its special 40th birthday celebration on "B-Bar-B-Riders" tonight.

7:00-KNX-The dark plot to assassinate Abraham Lincoln when he was on his way to his inauguration in 1861 is the "Hallmark Playhouse" story to be dramatized with Victor Jory in the starring role. It's title is "Lincoln and the Baltimore Plot" taken from a book of source material found at the Huntington Library in

7:30-KFI-Sometimes it is a "Long Hunt" when the law enforcement agencies attempt to track down an evasive criminal . . . this is ably proven on the "Dragnet" series

9:00-KECA-In a departure from its usual procedure, "Author Meets the Critic" considers the merits of a magazine article . . . Al Capp's piece from the Atlantic Monthly, "The Comedy of Charlie Chaplin" . . . Al Capp, the cartoonist, will defend his own work from the barbs of the critics.

TELE-TIPS

7:00-KNBH-A pedigreed puppy is to be given away to the boy or girl who writes the best letter on the way they think is best for children to raise money for the March of Dimes . . . at this time polio victim, Aubrey Smith, will be the guest on this child's program "Small

7:45—KTSL—Heads up! Heads off! The seldom seen magician's penetration trick of a girl being guillotined will be the sensational high light of "It's a Neat Trick" ... better see this one as there is talk of banning this performance.

8:00—KECA—An enlightening public service program "The Dead Letter Office" reveals the hardships and tragic waste involved annually by the public because of incorrectly addressing the mail.

8:30-KTTV-Mayor Fred Barber of Center City takes unto himself a bride, a thrice widowed lady whose husbands all met death by accidental falls . . . What is the fate in store for the mayor? See the "Front Page" for the gruesome details.
