DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

6:00—KFI—Admirers of the comedy talents of Rosalind Russell will have an opportunity to hear her repeat her characterization of the rather unromantic young bride in "This Thing Called Love" on "Screen Directors Playhouse."

8:30—KNX—"Johnny Dollar," insurance investigator, meets disaster at sea while he is guarding a rubber cargo that someone thinks is worth more if destroyed.

9:00—KECA—Swap a half hour of your time for the time of your life... listen to the "Traders" as the fabulous Nelsons explore the fine art of barter on "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet."

9:00—KNX—Lucille Ball, "Liz Cooper," figures to ease her domestic troubles by finding a husband for her mother-in-law... everything looks fine until they discover the bewildered gentleman has just stopped by to fix the phone... Sorry, wrong number!

9:30—KHJ—Jack Bailey will be searching for a sweetheart when he presents his Valentine's Day sketch on the "Comedy of Errors."

TELE-TIPS

8:00—KTLA—These film shorts include many interesting subjects... Wings Over Water is a study of the shore birds of Great Bear River, near Salt Lake City. Glimpses of the heart of Paris and islands of the East Indies are self-explanatory.

8:30—KNBH—Socialite chanteuse, Gina Janss, who has been voted the best dressed girl in television, will guest on Lee Hogan's show "Designed for Women."

8:30—KTTV—A special documentary film, "The Journey Back," will be introduced by Dwight D. Eisenhower. This dramatizes the tortuous rehabilitation of a veteran who has lost the power of speech and the use of his arms and legs.

9:00—KTLA—Two top favorites of the movies get together in the picture "Meet John Doe"... Barbara Stanwyck and Jimmy Stewart.

TOMORROW

11:00—KECA—The Met opera performance today is "The Marriage of Figaro," with the principals, Italo Tajo as Figaro, Bidu Sayao as Susanna, Eleanor Steber as the Countess and John Brownlee as the Count.

3:30—KFI—The radio premiere performance of the late Bela Bartok's "Viola Concerto," with William Primrose as soloist, will be given by the NBC Symphony today.

Six Pairs Viewed This Hand as Having Differing Values

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY

I received a letter recently which then led a small club, which East today's hand enclosed from Ru-dolf Muhsam, manager of the Cavendish Club in New York. I have not given you any bidding because I want you to discuss the bidding yourselves. There were nine pairs who played seven hearts. Six pairs bid six hearts. One pair only got to five hearts and the other pair, believe it or not, doubled the opponents at two spades. The pair who bid and made seven hearts got a small trump opening by West. The trick was won by the declarer with the queen, after East dropped the jack. Declarer took two rounds of trump and then cashed the king of diamonds. A small diamond was played and the jack finessed. After all

Some of the experts, in discussing the hand, agreed that with a trump lead declarer should take three rounds of trump, then play the ace and king of diamonds and lead a small diamond to the jack. West, in this case, has to win the trick with the queen. However, if West plays a low diamond the jack must be played from dummy. If East wins with the queen, the fourth diamond will be good for a valuable discard of a club. Now the next time you play a slam contract just remember that even the best of players slips up.

The Mutual-Don Lee Broadcasting System will air the "Game of the Day" in the American League, beginning with the opening of the 1950 baseball season on April 18. Live play-by-play broadcasts will be heard Monday through Saturday and will be released by some 350 Mutual stations located in 31 states. The "Game of the Day" will be selected from eight American League clubs in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, St. Louis, Cleveland, Chicago and Detroit. A minimum of 10 broadcasts will originate from each of the eight American League baseball parks during the regular playing season.

In addition to the daily play-by-play reports, the broadcasts will include interviews of leading baseball players and managers, coaches and sports writers.

Although Denmark is one of the smallest European countries, more Danes have attended the Dr. Christian Show than any other foreign nationality, among weekly visitors. Jean Hersholt, star of the program was born in Denmark and converses in Danish with his country men who come backstage to greet him.

He went over to dummy with the ace of diamonds and cashed the ace-king of spades, discarding a club and a diamond. Declarer declarer did not have much choice as his contract was to make seven. When it held he claimed the balance of the tricks. Of the six pairs who bid six hearts, four of them went down. Most of them made the following mistake: They won the opening heart lead with the queen and led a small club to the ten-spot. East won it with the queen and returned a small trump, which the declarer won with the king. He cashed the ace of clubs and led a small club, which West ruffed with the nine-spot. The two pairs who bid and made six hearts got a spade opening, which was won in dummy with the queen. The ten of clubs was led. East split his honors and declarer won the trick with the ace. Declarer now took three rounds of trump.

TV 'Mama' Play Popular Story

The television drama, "Mama," has achieved in its newest medium the unusual success this series experienced in book, play and movie form.

The saga of "Mama" began with Kathryn Forbes' book, "Mama's Bank Account." It became one of the two best-selling novels of 1943. By October, 1944, "I Remember Mama" appeared on the Broadway stage. It played to sold-out houses for 89 weeks, winning many "best" awards. A two year road tour, beginning in the fall of 1946, followed the Broadway run.

Then "I Remember Mama" appeared in movie form in March, 1948. The film set box-office records both at New York's Radio City Music Hall and in its nationwide showing.

In August, 1949, "Mama" was presented on television. Immediately hailed as "TV click" the KTTV-CBS program has lived up to that forecast by becoming one of television's highly popular presentations.

Broadway actress Peggy Wood, in the title role, is supported by a cast of Broadway professionals. Judson Laire is cast as Papa, Malcolm Keen as Uncle Chris, Rosemary Rice as Katrina, Dickie van Patten as Nels, Robin Morgan as Dagmar and Ruth Gates as Aunt Jenny.

The Kathryn Forbes stories are adapted for television by Frank Gabrielson, with each episode complete in itself. Carol Irwin produces the program. Ralph Nelson directs.

"Mama" is seen on Channel 11 every Sunday at 7:30-8:00 p. m.
