TIP O' THE MORNING. There's a feeling in the entertainment industry that the much-desired elimination of the 20 per cent tax will be partially successful; don't be surprised if congress pares the levy to 10 per cent, the pre-war figure.

Roy Vogeliman is producing a special human rights program broadcast at 10:30 p. m. Tuesday over WIBA, WKOW, and WFOV. Other stations may carry it, too.

Clifton Uley's news comments will return to WIBA's schedule at 10:15 p. m. Sunday. "American Forum of the Air" also will be back on WIBA at 3:30 p. m. Sunday.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt's program, usually limited to television, will be on NBC-WIBA at 10:30 p. m. Sunday.

ON TOUR: Seven art exhibits by students at the University of Wisconsin are touring high schools in the state. They were prepared by the art education exhibit committee under Chairman Richard R. Arnold. Examples of student work are shown through photographs. An explanatory text accompanies the pictures and many of the processes, methods, and problems also are shown through photographs. Each exhibit includes about 15 matted pieces prepared by University students. Exhibits are in seven classes: Composition, water color, design, drawing, metal work, graphics, and sculpture. They will be shown at the following high school through Feb. 22:

Composition, Appleton senior high school; water color, Racine Horlick high school; design, LaCrosse Logan high school; drawing, Waupun Central high school; metal work, Sheboygan Central high school; graphics, Two Rivers Washington high school; sculpture, Waukesha high school.

THE REV. B. F. ZIMMERMAN
Holding what is considered to be the largest, most perfect rough agate sphere in existence is the Rev. Bernard C. Zimmerman, pastor in El Cuyo, British Honduras, displaying the stone on a visit to Cleveland. Fr. Zimmerman, who found the stone near El Cuyo, wants to send the 37-pound agate to Pope Pius, but can't find anyone who can polish it because of its size. Polished, it would measure about eight inches in diameter.
