TIP O' THE MORNING: There's a definite move on foot among University of Wisconsin students to try to bring Ralph Flanagan's orchestra here for Junior Prom.

One of the most difficult things in the theater to carry off successfully is a program of one-act plays, but Wisconsin Players (with the cooperation of the University of Wisconsin music school) did it we Tuesday night. They presented Tuesday night. They presented.

Noel Coward's tragic vignette.
"Still Life;" Menotti's charming opera. "The Telephone," and Martin Sampson's satire, "The Soul the woman in the case.

An audience of 1.200 found the going good, and more audiences of similar size will aitend tonight

One of the season's occurred was her picture of Laura's indecision over breaking off or continuing the affair. And her anguish
