DIAL LITES-TONIGHT

6:00-KFL-Bob Hope and Jane Russell will take to the wild west again when they play their original roles in "The Paleface." . . . "Screen Directors Playhouse" presents this burlesque of the pioneering days set in the perilous Indian country. 6:30—KECA—A pianistic "natural," Dizzy Fingers, with Roger Renner demonstrating his agility at the keyboard, will be the solo feature on "Hits and Encores"

7:00—KNX—A night out at the movies proves disastrous for the principals of "Young Love" . . . the trouble starts when Jan is determined to prove she is as glamorous as Hedy Lamarr in "Samson and Delilah."

7:30—KFI—Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, president of the U. N. General Assembly, will be Bill Stern's guest on "Sports Newsreel" tonight. Romulo has had a thorough sports background, the details of which he will relate on the broadcast.

8:00—KHJ—Barry Fitzgerald is the happy choice for the star of Rich Hall's story, "The Luck of Killarney," to be aired on the "Froudiy We Hail" series tonight. TELE-TIPS

6:10—KECA—All the proceeds of the sale of the song "Luz Maria," written by Johany Clark and his wife, will go toward the building of a chapel for the Little Missionary House in L. A. It will be sung by the tenor star of "Chef Milani" program. Bob Franklin.

6:45-KTTV-Beginning tonight this channel will each week show a series of quarter-hour "Fairy Tale" films, This is especially slanted to the viewing of the "early to bed crowd," as it immediately follows Bombo and Bimbo on "Playtime."

8:00-KTSL-Here is an exciting film, "Sea Devil," which shows the hunt for a giant ray in the coastal waters off Central America, with action shots of spearand gaffing. 8:30-KTTV-This is the final home basketball game of

U. C. L. A. . . . Tonight they meet their cross-town rival U.S.C. when they both contend for the southern divisional crown.

9:00—KNBH—Harold Barry, dancing emcce of "Versatile Varieties," will introduce the well-known night club singer, Monica Lewis, as featured guest star tonight . . the fact that follows must be the height of versatility . . . it is Jimmy Smith, who performs a dance on the xylophone. TOMORROW

11:00—KECA-—The well-loved opera "Rigoletto" will be heard from the Met Opera today . . . principals in this Verdi work are baritone, Leonard Warren, and soprano, Patricia Munsel, in the role of his daughter, Gilda.

4:30—KFI—The Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, directed by Henry Sopkin, will be heard in a program titled "Pioneers of the 19th Century." The high light of their program is the offering of the "Symphony No. 3 in E Flat" (The Eroica) by Beethoven. . . . This symphony is accepted as one of the towering achievements in all orchestral composition.
