Famed Conductor Mitropoulos To Lead Symphony Saturday

The Dimitri Mitropoulos concert with the San Antonio Symphony Saturday night puts the orchestra on the international list of the major symphonic groups which have had the world-famous conductor on their podiums.

New York Life President To Visit Here

Devereaux C. Josephs, president of the New York Life Insurance Company, will address some 80 agents from San Antonio, Fort Worth, Dallas and Houston branch offices at the spring meeting at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Plaza Hotel, A. F. Lindberg, manager here, announced.

ed the Boston Symphony, the Philadelphia Orchestra, the San Francisco Symphony, and was, for 12 years, musical director of the Minneapolis Symphony.

During this season he has been heard frequently as conductor of the regular Sunday afternoon radio concerts of the New York Philharmonic and will again next season, when he returns as the orchestra's only regular conductor.

"The Symphony Society of San Antonio is proud to be able to put its forces in the hands of one of the great conductors of this generation," Symphony President Jesse H. Oppenheimer said, "and we believe his concert here will be an historic event for musical San Antonio."

Mitropoulos' program will include one of the greatest of the Beethoven symphonies — the "Eroica." He will also conduct the Overture to "The Magic Flute," by Mozart; the symphonic poem "La Procession Nocturne," by Rabaud, and "Francesca da Rimini," by Tschaiikowsky.
