DIAL LITES—TODAY

2:00—KHJ—"The Shadow," the show that is earmarked for its realistic sound effects, is prepared to bring to listeners another eerie episode.

3:00—KNX—There's trickery afoot in the "Cooper" household. . . Liz is puzzled when her "Favorite Husband" wants to check her will, but she is downright startled to find a receipt for some arsenic and rope in his pocket. . . but the pay off comes when George suggests a trip to the country with a one-way ticket for Liz.

5:30—KFI—Screen stars Richard Widmark and Teresa Wright play the leads in John Van Druten's romantic comedy, "There's Always Juliet," for the "Theater Guild of the Air." This is the story of an American architect who falls in love with an English deb and when recalled makes an intensive three-day campaign to take her back with him.

6:30—KECA—The latest wrinkle to be instituted on "Chance of a Lifetime" is just a matter of luck and a keen eye. . . Listen in for details of a grand opportunity.

7:00—KNX—Starting today Dick Haymes and Jo Stafford, two of the nation's most popular singers, will appear each week on the "Contented Hour." This fine combination should prove an added attraction to this established Sunday favorite.

8:30—KFI—The Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, with Leonard Pennario as soloist, will be featured during the "Standard Hour" concert. Pennario plays the first movement of Prokofiev's "Piano Concerto." Orchestral selections include Tchaikovsky's "Serenade for Strings" and "Tyl Eulenspiegel" by Strauss.

11:30—KHJ—High lights of the safe-driving film, "Her Last Date," will be rebroadcast by popular request. The program opens with this definition: "Teenicide is the fine art of killing yourself. . . and maybe someone else. . . before you are 20, with an automobile! Calling all parents."

TELE-TIPS

5:15—KTTV—Donnie Harris, 12-year-old boy featured in "Caesar and Cleopatra," makes an appearance on "Mr. I. Magination." . . Tonight he expresses a desire to be a college football hero. . . whisked away to the place where dreams come true he is given his chance to lead State College to great new heights on the gridiron.

7:00—KECA—Irra Petina, lovely soprano of the Met, and Earl Wrightson, noted baritone, will be guests on "Paul Whiteman's Revue" tonight. A Spanish motif will set the mood for a sparkling half-hour of music, dance and comedy.

7:45—KTLA—Paulette Goddard, Ray Milland and William Bendix look into the "Crystal Ball" when they star in this film tonight.

9:00—KNBH—The dramatization of the tragic life of the Dutch painter "Vincent Van Gogh" will be seen on "Television Playhouse" tonight. The distinguished actor, Everett Sloane, will portray the artist with Chester Stratton taking the part of his brother. Settings will duplicate scenes made famous by Van Gogh.
