DIAL LITES-TONIGHT

6:30-KFI-"Jimmy Durante" almost loses his longcherished bachelorhood during tonight's show. The trouble all starts when he is almost trapped into marriage with Don Ameche's mother-in-law . . . the same woman he has fought off many times before.

7:00—KECA—Two heavyweights, both undefeated champs, Roland Lastarza and Rocky Marciano, will high light this week's boxing card from Madison Square Garden. Don Dunphy will handle the blow by blow account of this 10-round bout.

7:00—KHJ—Secretary of the Navy Francis Matthews will "Meet the Press" in an attempt to justify his position in regard to Capt. John G. Crommelin. He will be interviewed by members of the press from New York, San Diego and Minneapolis.

8:30—KNX—Joe Mazurka, just escorted out of Miami on a vagrancy charge, is invited back by a famed author and runs into "Danger at Matecumbe." The job turns out to be highly paid but not high enough to overcome the risks involved, nor does there seem to be any hope of "Escape."

9:00-KECA-It's a lesson in economics for the Nelson youngsters when "Ozzie" decides to teach them the value of a dollar , . . they need more money and he works out a point system of merits and demerits, paying the boys in accordance with the outcome.

TELE-TIPS

6:20-KECA-"Smugglers Lair" is the ninth chapter in the current exciting serial "The Black Coin." 8:00—KTTV—"The Show Goes On," with Robert Q. Lewis at the helm. . . . This is a new program to be seen at this time each week. 9:00-KTLA-Sir Ralph Richardson and Ann Todd appear in the imported film "South Riding."

9:30-KNBH-The manner in which Harry McCormick solves the daring "Huntsville Prison Case" is the "Big Story" episode for tonight. McCormick had long worked to improve penal conditions and was regarded as a friend by many inmates. When three convicts escape by forging a pardon from the governor, he is the only one to whom the warden can turn for assistance. TOMORROW

11:00-KECA-Puccini's opera in four acts, "La Boheme," will mark the final matinee broadcast in this year's Met Opera series. Principals in the opera will be Licia Albanese, soprano, as Mimi, and Richard Tucker, tenor, taking the role of Rodolfo. Gerhard Pechner, bass, appears for the first time in the dual characterization of Benoit and Alcindoro.

4:30-KFI-"Pioneers of Music" will feature the Wichita Symphony Orchestra, directed by Orien Dalley. The program will deal with the solo concerto as exemplified by Mozart in the 18th Century and Brahms in the Nineteenth.
