DIAL LITES-TODAY

2:00—KFI—As the high point of its Easter programming NBC presents an exclusive broadcast from the Sistine Chapel in Vatican City. From overseas comes the Sistine Chapel Choir singing the first part of the Perosi oratoria, "Resurrection," with Don Lorenzo Perosi, the composer, conducting.

2:00-KNX-A special full-hour Easter Sunday radio production of "Dinner at Eight," starring such top-flight Hollywood talent as Rosalind Russell, Charles Boyer, Deborah Kerr and Paul Douglas, is the "Holiday Hour" offering for this season.

2:30—KECA—"Be not faithless but believing" . . . this is the Easter Day message of the Biblical series, "The Greatest Story Ever Told." For the fourth year the drama to be presented is "The Resurrection," the story of the followers of Christ who anticipated his release from the Tomb on the third day.

5:00-KNX-Jeanne Crain brings Charlie McCarthy an Easter present . . . it is a hollow egg in which can be seen a "Bunnyland" of miniature animals. . . . Together they will take a trip into this fantastic land.

6:00—KHJ—Nineteen stars of stage, screen and radio will be heard in "The Triumphant Hour." Songs and dramatic segments make up this hour-long program.

TELE-TIPS

2:30—KNBH—This is the first in a series of polo matches between the Beverly Hills club and the Texas Hurricanes, who are competing for the Pat Rourke Memorial

7:00-KECA-Lovely singing star Kyle MacDonnell and baritone Earl Wrightson lend a note of spring to the "Paul Whiteman Revue." This theme will become evident with the opening number, the famous Whiteman arrangement of "Chimes of Springs."

7:45-KTLA-Clair Trevor, Albert Dekker and Barry Sullivan take the leading roles in tonight's film, "Woman of the Town."

8:00—KTTV—Sheila Bond, Broadway dancing star, is the headliner on Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town." The bill also includes Eileen Barton, recording artist, and Phil Jones, juvenile dance group.

$9,000,000 Gift to Irvine Heir Shrinks, Says Dad

MARTINEZ, April 8, (A) Estimates of the value of nine-yearold William Thornton White III's fabulous inheritance shrank today as the boy's father reported details of the estate left by his son's grandmother, who died last Sunday. That $9,000,000 is a lot of baloney," said William Thornton White Jr., 38, referring to the original value placed on the estate left by his mother, Mrs. Katherine Brown Irvine, 62, to his son.

The youngster was named sole heir in Mrs. Irvine's 1948 will, filed yesterday for probate.

While Mrs. Irvine's second husband, James Irvine, wealthy Oakland lumberman, left an estate of $9,373,378, when he died in 1947, it did not all go to his wife, it was learned. Irvine's will gave Mrs. Irvine only one-fourth of the estate, the remainder going to other relatives, friends and organizations.

Considering both inheritance and income taxes which have been deducted since then, the boy's windfall may be somewhere in the thousands. It will be inrentoried, White Jr., said.

The will provides that the boy shall receive up to $3600 a year for his education and mainte-nance until he is 21—when he will be paid the entire income from the estates.

The boy and his sister, Gay, 11, reside with their mother, Mrs. Gloria Wood White, in Newport Beach, Calif. The parents are divorced. Mrs. Irvine left vast land holdings in Moraga Valley, near here, in Montana and at Santa Ana,
