7:00-KNX-Back from Palm Springs come "George and Gracie Allen" to show their friends how much sudden health they have acquired at the desert resort. George has been basking in the sun and Gracie has spent her time indoors. . . Strangely enough the opinion is that George looks awful and Gracie is "in the pink."

8:30—KHJ—Jane Wyatt will play hostess to Alan Young, who will star in "Family Theater's" production of "The 51st Dragon.'

8:00—KECA—Israel's second year of independence will be observed with a special United Jewish appeal broadcast narrated by screen star Edward G. Robinson. This documentary, titled "Growing Pains," will relate the tasks of immigration and set-

8:00-KNX-"Jeff Regan, Investigator," becomes involved with a client's problem child to such an extent that he is forced to ride in a hot rod race. When a car battle develops Regan tries to have both drivers disqualified to save their lives, but he is unable to prevent a crash of cars that was not of the kind expected.

9:30—KFI—Four slips of paper found in a dead man's hand prove the vital clues in solving "The Case of the Ring of Death," when "Mr. District Attorney" investigates this mystery tonight

TELE-TIPS

7:45—KTTV—The vernal season comes into its own with a spring program featuring Martha Wright, guest singer, and baritone Earl Wrightson on his "At Home Show." They lead off with "April Showers" and "Spring Is Here" and close with "It Might As Well Be Spring."

8:00—KNBH—Kay Kyser will escort viewers on a trip aroundthe-world to the tune of "Music, Music, Music" on tonight's edition of his "College of Musical Knowledge." When the orchestra shifts to a tango tempo, Diane Sinclair and Kenny Spaulding will dance to the Spanish version of the tune.

9:30 KTSL Here is your chance to see the plush furnishings of the Glenn Fords (Eleanor Powell), who are now redecorating their home and have put up many of their former antiques for sale through the famous auctioneer. Lewis S. Hart. 9:30—KECA—"Cole's Cozy Corner," musical variety show star-ring Buddy Cole and Vonnie King, makes its appearance among the many fine shows on this channel.
