 6:00—KNX—Here is a new twist, a "Suspense" drama which mixes chuckles with chills. There is hilarity here, but seriousness, too, when Ray Milland takes off to find the hombre who has lifted a string of "Pearls That Are a Nuisance

"3:30—KFI—As it comes to all men, it has at last caught up with "Archie." Just what are his qualifications? After all, if he is going to continue to be the proprietor of "Duffy's Tavern," he had better be able to come up with a grammar school diploma. Will his alma mater grant him this honor?

9:00—KECA—The much discussed book, "Seeds of Treason," by Ralph de Toledano and Victor Lasky, is the subject of praise and the target of criticism when "Author Meets the Critic"

9:36-KHJ-Two grim murders take place, one inside, the other outside. A long unoccupied mansion, when "Peter Salem" investigates the "Affair of the Diabolical Dinner."

TOMORROW

10:45 A. M.-KTED-Exclusive for the coastline area, on standard radio stations, is the major league direct broadcast of base-ball from some of the nation's top ball parks. This is a daily feature with a special double header on Sundays. Games of both the American and National Leagues will be aired.

TELE-TIPS

7:00-KTSL-Aware of its youthful audience, this channel has switched its educational and entertaining program "Stranger Than Fiction" to this new time slot, and "Love and Kisses," which is directed toward a more sophisticated group, now

8:30—KECA—Haven't you always thought the life of a plano tuner a lonely one? Well "Mama Rosa" finds it is all too true when her boarder Nicoli appeals to the lovelorn column for help.

9:30—KTTV—Mike Barnett is really a "Man Against Crime" when he encounters two women who try to hide the evidence which points to crime and murder.

Music's Pendulum Swings Back to Dixieland Style

By BILL BECKER

HOLLYWOOD. (AP) Dixieland is back and almost everyone's got it-at least around here. The oldtime two-beat jazz seems to have bopped be-bop right off the musical map. If anybody's crying, you can't hear it in the blare of strident trumpets and tail-gate trom-

At last count there were more than a dozen Dixieland bands, mostly six or seven pieces, playing the night spots here. You could count the bop outfits on one hand.

here. You could count the pop outs on one name.

The same musical trend is re ported in New York and Chicago.

Red Nichols—to name some of the most devoted. Most of the latching on. Their recent output may pave the way for a nation wide swing back to Dixie.

As one Dixielander, Ward Kim.
