DIAL LITES-TODAY

$:20—KHJ—The "Voice of Prophecy" program features two famous a cappella choral groups who will sing "Oh for a Thousand Tongues" and the Union College chorus who will sing "Rise Up, Oh Men of God." This important program will also be heard on KECA at 1:30.

2:00—KNX—Nation-wide progress in "The Fight Against Cancer," made possible by the doctors and public in general will be reported at this time.

2:30—KECA—The value of earthly and spiritual treasures is the theme of today's Biblical dramatization on the "Greatest Story Ever Told."

*:30—KHJ—"Peter Salem" now joins the Sunday line-up of adventure dramas on this fine Mutual sequence.

*:30—KNX—Horace Heidt and his troupe are bringing democracy in action to the youth in Germany. Tonight he will have as his guest Maj. Gen. Maxwell Taylor, Allied commander of

8:30—KFI—Mona Paulee, mezzo-soprano, will be guest soloist with the Seattle Symphony Orchestra on the "Standard Hour" tonight. Selections include Mozart's "Titus" overture and Beethoven's "Symphony No. 7."

TELE-TIPS

$:30—KFI—Tom and Elyse Harmon are entertaining guests after the baseball game today. Expected are Kathy Downs, Joe Kirkwood, Cynthia and Davis Bruce and Betty and Bob Shyne. Parlor games will be played after a brief warmup.

8:00—KTTV—Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athelicia and a group of old-time players will high light a pro-letics, and a group of old-time players will high light a program of variety acts on Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town."

$:30—KECA—It's "D-Day" on the "Crusade in Europe" series

tonight. :00—KNBH—The story of the mystery surrounding a suicide in which the "End Is Known," will be dramatized on the "Television Playhouse" tonight.

Criswell Says Pepper Will Lose in Election

By CRISWELL

WHAT PEOPLE WILL DO: Vice President Barkley will make a whirl-wind goodwill tour to mend political fences. . . . One of our most famous comic strips will end suddenly through contract trouble and by court order, literally killing off one of our national cowboy heroes.

Sen. Claude Pepper will be defeated for election in Florida. . . . One of the world's most famous women will be out of public circulation for six weeks while she takes the alcoholic cure. . . . Sister Kenny will build her polio hospital. Paul S. Powers, the mystery writer, who authored the scary "Doc Dillahay" (The Six Gun Doctor) will frighten you out of your wits with his next mystery, which takes place during a society wedding! . . . The Lincoln Shrine at Springfield, Ill., will draw record crowds this summer.

Carlton Adair, the bright idea man for radio, will thrill you with his next for-women-only program! . . . Bette Davis will have a sensational divorce trial. . . . President Truman will show that he is still head of the Democratic party by his blasting of several of the old New Deal advocates!

Marion Talley, the opera singer, will hit the comeback trail in a series of midwest concerts!

Franco will make way for the return of a Spanish King late this year. . . . Church attendance will reach an all-time high early in 1951.

Larceny Lou' Bluffer Tricks Fail to Upset Aleri Player

By OSWALD JACOBY

LARCENY LOU is a hard man to play against. In a business deal his word is all the contract you need, but not at the bridge table. He steals tricks left and right, and he manages to look surprised if you call him a crook. West opened the jack of clubs, East naturally put up the king matically. It was clear to East, of course that if South really had no more clubs. South would (he feared) ruff it. This would set up dummy's ten.

and Lou dropped his queen auto-

So East shifted to the nine of hearts. And that was the end of that hand. Lou won with the ace of hearts and drew trumps. Then he knocked out the ace of diamonds. If Fast wanted his are of clubs KECA—Art Baker.

Time.

If East wanted his ace of clubs, the could take it. Otherwise, he could get out with a heart and dummy's extra diamond. Either way the defense could take only top clubs and the ace of dia monds. Of course you've noticed what would have happened if East had continued the clubs. His partner would have shown out on the second round of the suit. Then East would lead a third round and give his partner a club ruff. Eventually the ace of diamonds would set the contract.

Maybe you've noticed that East KFOX—Freddia would surely keep on with the clubs if Lou had dropped a small KNX—Strike It Rich. club at the first trick. It would be the natural line of play.

If you're really fast, you've also seen that East should have been able to see through the little plot. If Lou were telling the truth, West had the rest of the clubs. This meant that he had led the jack from an original holding of tack-five-four. A good player doesn't lead high from such a holding in his part ner's suit. He leads the lowest Hence East should have known that his partner could not have the two low clubs left in his hand. In other words, Larceny Lou was trying to pull a fast one.
