DIAL LITES -- TONIGHT

6:00-KNX-"All My Sons," the story of a greedy war profiteer who not only causes the death of many unknown men but brings grief and death to his own family, is the "Radio Theater" presentation tonight. Burt Lancaster, Edward Arnold, Scott Brady and Ann Pearce play the leading roles.

8:30—KFI—"Proudly We Hail" presents its two hundredth broadcast on this station tonight. Lee Cleary is featured in the light comedy "My Brother Abe," the story of an old man who outwits his grasping relatives. 8:00-KHJ-The warped psychological disposition of a brilliant man who takes delight in managing the lives of others is the background of George Valantine's latest adventure, titled "The Chair of Humanities.

8:80-KECA-Martha Lou Harp, singing star of the south, and "Fletch" Philburn, noted trombonist, joins Henry Levine in the musical funiest "Strictly from Dixie." $:00-KFI-Jascha Heifetz, soloist on tonight's "Telephone Hour" plays the composition with which he made his American debut in 1917. The work is Respighi's setting of Vitali's
