DIAL LITES-TODAY

12:00-KNX-This week "Your Invitation to Music" brings you Helen Traubel, Wagnerian soprano for the Metropolitan Opera, who will discuss the first recordings ever made from the stage of the Met. It is the "Love Duet" from "Tristan and Isolde which will be played at this time.

2:00—KFI—A departure from the usual detective-mystery format is "The Big Guy" which starts today. In this series the private eye is also a widower bringing up a family alone. He must always weigh the risks involved against his responsibility to the children.

4:00—KFI—"The Falcon" is Michael Waring, played by Les Damon, a free lance detective who is always ready with a hand for oppressed men and a ready eye for repressed women. He leads an adventurous life on his clients' cases. This marks the debut of this popular series on this network.

6400—KNX—"Charlie" and Skinny Dugan are in trouble again. When charges are pressed against them, "Charlie" decides to raise the needed cash by staging a melodrama to be given in a local barn . . must be an opera as he has secured Dinah. Shore for the leading role . . . bet he snags a fat part for rhimself, too.

7:30—KHJ—The problem of controlling the heavens occupies the gearth of the year 2000 plus as the U. N. decides to send "A "Rocket to the Moon."

9:00-KECA-Judges for the 1950 Atwater Kent Auditions in clude such leading musical figures as Robert Armbruster, Meredith Willson and Victor Young. This week the boys try out for these coveted prizes, next week the girls have their turn, TELE TIPS

8:00—KECA—G-r-r! For the first time a man-eating lioness makes an appearance on television. When she performs her tug o' war with Trainer Terrell Jacobs on "Super Circus," it rpromises to keep everyone from kids to clowns on their toes.
745-KTLA—"To Be or Not to Be"... that is the question... not Shakespeare but the one and only Jack Benny assisted Carole Lombard and Robert Stack answer this one on tonight's

8:00—KTTV—The dexterity with the cue that enabled him to cap-ture the world's billards championship will be demonstrated by Willie Mosconi when he makes his television debut on Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town."

990-KNBH-A mystery with some moralizing on the subjects of cards, women and gambling is "The Man in the Black Hat" dramatized on "Television Playhouse."

When Lou won this trick with the queen of spades. West's jaw hit the table with a clank.

"Sorry," Lou said apologetic-ily, "Had it mixed with my clubs."

Actually, Lou's play had been absolutely deliberate. That pause of two or three seconds had given time to plan this little him tir swindle.

He saw that he would have to take the club finesse. If that lost, West would surely switch to But West would not switch if he had reason to expect the spades to set the contract. And Lou's first play gave West that reason.
What if the club finesse succeeded? Then the contract was Vagabonds Return to Godfrey Show

Those unpredictable Vaga thur Godfrey and His Friends' bonds, whose antics and songs cast are vocalists Janette Davis have established them as favor and Bill Lawrence, the Mariners ites with Arthur Godfrey's audi- and Chordettes, announcer Tony been signed for a series Marvin and Archie Bleyer's of three guest appearances with chestra.
"Arthur Godfrey and His Friends" on KTTV, beginning Wednesday. May 10 (KTTV, 9 p. m., Channel 11). The Vagabonds have been in Florida during the winter. Called "America's daffiest, laughiest swing quartet," the Vagabonds were holding forth in a Miami Beach night spot when Godfrey first saw them. Their unpredictable, hilarious act so enthused Godfrey that he asked them to be his guests when they came to New York. They returned as many times as their personal appearance schedule would permit. The Vagabonds are Pete Peterson, a Hawalian Swede, bass; Dom Germano, guitar; Tillio Risso, accordion, and Al Torrey, guitar. Regular members of the "Ar-
