TIP OF THE MORNING: Recognizing a highly increased interest in religion across the nation, already reflected in the press and radio, record-makers probably will increase their outputs of religious music soon.

Entries in the 1950 Salon of School Art will be previewed by the young artists, their parents, and members of the Madison Art Assn. from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday in the Madison Free library gallery. The association will sponsor the preview.

Paintings will be judged by Aaron Bohrod, artist-in-residence at the University of Wisconsin, and Fred Logan and Robert Griley, of the university art education department. Art metal and ceramics will be judged by Della Wilson and Arthur Vierthaler of the same department.

Preliminary selections were made by the art staffs of the Madison, Shorewood Hills, and Lakewood public schools.

TUDOR SINGERS: A program of folk songs and spirituals will be presented by the Tudor Singers at their annual spring dinner musicale Sunday night in Tripp Commons of the Memorial Union.

After a dinner of Southern fried chicken, the Tudors will sing songs of the Tudor period accompanied by Mary E. D. Collins, harpist. Then Prof. E. B. Gordon, founder of the organization, will direct group singing of old favorites.

What makes a railroad?

Your land and Our rails

Nobody needed to tell your great-granddad about land and railroads. His own eyes told him how farms and towns, factories and mines blossomed like spring dandelions when the rails came.

Today, if you dig for the facts, you'll quickly see that the Illinois Central means as much to you as it did to great-granddad. For even if you're a city dweller, you live and work with things that move by rail.

And the Illinois Central lives and works for you and your family—and 10 million other families along our lines. Our present and our future depend upon the industry, agriculture and mining of Mid-America.

That's why we are always ready to help farmers improve their herds and soil and to find new sites for industry. By working with the people of Mid-America, we earn the patronage that makes possible a modern, progressive railroad.
