Morris-Foster to Team in Two Films

Wayne Morris, who just completed a co-starring role with Rod Cameron in Columbia's Technicolor production, "Stage to Tucson," will return to that studio to team with Preston Foster in two other films: "The Tougher They Come," a lumber camp story to be produced by Wallace MacDonald, and "The Big Gusher," an oil field story to be produced by Milton Feldman.

Joan Busy With Autobiography

It's all very hush-hush, but Joan Crawford is writing her autobiography. The actress brings her secretary, Mrs. Colby, to Columbia each day, and between scenes of "Harriet Craig," she is dictating her memoirs. Joan, who became the Charles and Black Bottom champ when she first came to Hollywood from a Broadway chorus, is titling her book, "Dancing With Cheers in My Eyes."
