Salvation Army to Be Featured in TV 'Newsreel'

The story of the Salvation Army in America is retold on Yesterday's Newsreel. Sunday, over Channel 11. Outgrowth of the ideals of William Booth, this evangelical organization is on hand to help during all emergencies and disasters. First meeting in America was in 1879, under Lt. Eliza Shirley. In 1904, command passed to Evangeline Booth, who retired in 1934.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19. (U.B.) system yesterday, Matthews active of RCA of proposing its color systems only when it was faced with "threats of competition and of possible consequent weakening industry are trying to dominate television through control of color rights.

The charges were made by Arthur S. Matthews, president of Color Television, Inc., of San Francisco, against Radio Corporation of America and Columbia Broadcasting System. Matthews' Company is seeking FCC approval for its color television system when it was faced with "threats of competition and of possible consequent weakening of its powerful position in the radio industry."

He said RCA's television system was "too complicated" for the average service man to handle, or for the average viewer to adjust successfully.

He said the CBS system would cost the public more than $500,000,000 to convert or adapt present black and white sets to color.

mattnews claimed the CTI system was compatible with present receivers, produced a good color picture and required no "souping-up" of transmitters.
