DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

6:30—KNX—The tragic life of Andrew Begay, young Navajo Indian and veteran of World War II, is revealed on "This Is Your Life" tonight. Rendering invaluable service during the war, he was given a "general" discharge because he is unable to read or write English. This broadcast will attempt to rectify the error. the error.

the error.

7:00—KHJ—The story of a man who falls desperately in love with a "Black Shadow" will be told by the "Mysterious Traveler" on this week's train ride.

7:46—KECA—The question, "Do women have a place in government?" will be discussed by a woman who speaks from personal experience. She is Mrs. Nancy Hodges, Speaker of the House in the British Columbia Legislature, who is the guest tonight on "Report to the People."

8:30—KFI—An unusual slant on the familiar story of Thomas Jefferson will be presented by "Cavalcade of America" in "A Fortrait of the Author," starring Basil Rathbone. Mr. and Mrs. Jones of Main St., U. S. A., visit Monticello, and learn some unknown facts about this famous man.

8:30—KECA—Owen Callin, I. N. S., will retell the story of the tragedy of Kathy Fiscus, and Sylvia Jacobs, of the Honolulu Advertiser, will tell of the scoop of the century, which could not be printed until four days after Pearl Harbor. "Gentlemen of the Press" get together to relate these thrilling news stores.

600—KTSL—(2)—The brilliant music of Lawrence Welk's or-chestra is featured on tonight's "Cavalcade of Bands," and comic, Lou Holtz, heads the variety talent. Two dance combinations will also be seen.

7:45—KTTV—(11)—The Fifth Ave, windows of B. Altman & Co.
will be brought to life with live models and singing canarles, when Ilka Chase presents a fast-moving fashion show on "Glamour-Go-Round." 9:00-KNBH-(4)-When trouble breaks out on his ranch, Tex Williams calls in three dicks from Scotland Yard. . . . They turn out to be three Canadians who whoop things up on the "Western Caravan" when they sing "It's a Quiet Town."

turn out to be three Canadians who whoop things up on the "Western Caravan" when they sing "It's a Quiet Town." 9:30—KTTV—(11)—Meg Mundy, Scott McKay and Robert Emhardt star in "One and One's a Lonesome." This "Suspense" drama is about a double-crossing female who conspires to do away with her husband.

"My wife and I sometimes deliberately bid for more tricks than we can make. Our neighbors complain that this is bad sportsmanship.

"For example, here is a hand we played the other night. My wife had the East hand, and I had the West cards. Naturally, we did not expect to make five hearts. We bid that high only

1 am glad to back up my correspondent. Every good player in the world knows that it is often sound policy to bid for more tricks than he can make. The question of sportsmanship in this connection is never brought up except by very inexperienced players. There are some gentle old souls who never overbid, never double for penalties, and consider it a bit vulgar to bid a slam. Fortunately for our national character most of us are not so gentle. It's very American to gentle. It's very American to play hard and to admire those who give us a real tussle.

who give us a real tussle.

My Cleveland correspondent should be able to convince his neighbors very easily. Judging from his hand, those neighbors are pretty good players. And they won't want to be classed as gentle old souls.

'Johnny Holiday' Called Down-to-Earth Picture

By CRISWELL

WHAT YOU WILL LIKE:

If you haven't seen "Johnny Holiday," the down-toearth picture that is bringing old customers back to the movie theaters, by all means see it . . . Kevin O'Morrison will lift "The Golden Gloves Story" far above the average prize fight picture, and this new Hollywood personality top boy will crowd the best of them for real he-man's Louis Hayward is at his best in "Captain Blood," but t is Noel Coward who comes into his own in the English film "Astonished Heart."

Two so-called "B" pictures "State Penitentiary" (Warner Baxter) and "Motor Patrol" (Don Castle-Jane Nigh) you will find superior to many top double bill attraction! . . . The "Encore" picture of the week is Joan Crawford in "Rain" with the late Walter Huston. On your bookshelf you will find "The Sunnier Side' by Charles Jackson (The Lost Weekend) a very fine glimpse into your boyhood; "The Company of Men" by Romain Gary, translated from the French with some of the most shocking scenes of our world today; "Roof of the World" by Amaury de Riencourt, an expose of Tibet, the private mystical world of the Dalai Lama, his quaint philosophy and his daily life; "If You Were Born in Russia," by Arthur Goodfriend, who gives us the astonishing daily life of an ordinary citizen in the Soviet today, where one must lose their individuality completely. This book starts with the birth of a child of the "State" in a maternity home and ends in a funeral parlor, and will be on the required reading list of schools, colleges and universities. Robert Smith gives us one of the best novels about Boston, the snobbery, hypocrisy and the ambition of the polite and the impolite circles in this famous city.

On the magazine shelf you have a new story by James Warner Bellah in the Saturday Evening Post who's recent Post story, "The Painted Warrior," is now being filmed.
On your music rack you will find three oldies of the late 20's "Sunny Side of the Street," "Sunny Side Up" and "Sonny Boy"!
