TIP OF THE MORNING:

There's a rumor that Fibber McGee and Molly will retire from radio—and not in favor of television, for which they had a film tryout.

Mrs. Florence McDowell Bohman, Roseobel, is represented in an exhibition at Davenport, Ia., by a tempera painting, "Bluffs With Snow." The show consists of works by artists from the states bordering the Mississippi river.

He's already booked on "Great Artists" for Aug. 21.

JUDGE: Nancy Olson of Paramount Pictures has agreed to judge entries in a contest being conducted for a name for a store at 454 State st. Miss Olson attended the University of Wisconsin in 1946-47, was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, and appeared in Wisconsin Players production. Her home was at Milwaukee.

VISITORS: The Wisconsin Designer-Craftsmen of Milwaukee will be in Madison on Saturday. Their tour will include a visit to the University of Wisconsin crafts workshops, luncheon at the Memorial Union, a view of the new First Unitarian church, and a visit to the Glass Severance studios. Mrs. Severance will display her own work and that of Mrs. Bentley Courtenay, Ruth Harris, and Kenneth Caldwell.

Dorothy Shay recorded two new sides last week — "Oh, Them Dudes," from "Let's Dance," and "Home Cookin'" from "Fancy Pants."

Bill Flansburg, formerly with Fred Waring, has succeeded Don Rodney as baritone-guitarist with Guy Lombardo.

Hildegard will sing for wounded soldiers in Paris on June 3. About 100 unpublished melodies by the late Vincent Youmans are in a New York vault.

Disc jockeys are reviving the Bing Crosby-Dixie Lee recording of "The Way You Look Tonight." Dean Jagger will star in a "new type" detective series on radio.

Louise Erikson began her Hollywood radio career in "Meet Corliss Archer." Now the star of "A Date With Judy," she's doubling back to the "Archer" show as one of Corliss' chums.

When Igor Gorin sings on "Great Artists" June 19, the program will be broadcast from Carnegie hall for the second time in its history.

Ray Middleton takes over Exo Pinza's role in "South Pacific" on June 1, and Pinza leaves New York for Hollywood the next day.

Reese, president of the Madison Campship committee for the past three years; Irene L. Buck, supervisor of art for the Madison public schools; Beau Payton, art director of the Arthur Towell advertising agency; and Byron Jorns, of the University of Wisconsin, who has taught art in 4-H club camps.
