9:00-KNX-Sen. Robert Taft and Sen. Paul Douglas will engage in an informal appraisal of one of the world's most cele-brated documents, the United States Constitution, when they appear as guests on the 10th anniversary broadcast of "Invitation to Learning."

12:30—KHJ—The first public "woof" of an Australian Cattle Dog will be heard when Traveller, a recent import, appears as "Dog Guest of the Week" on "Juvenile Jury."

00.—KNX—Jack Benny and his gang make their farewell address to the radio audience by presenting a daffy documentary which will bring listeners up to date on the events which led to the discovery of the members of the troupe. Fact and fiction will be mixed in generous proportions when Benny tells

6:15-KECA-Pretty Diane Lynn, popular actress, will discuss her latest picture when she guests on Louella Parson's program tonight.

30—KFI—Camilla Wicks, young California violinist, will be the guest soloist on the "Standard Hour." She will perform three selections in a program with the orchestra under the baton of 8:30-KHJ-A new series based on authentic cases, which demonstrate how the lie detector divulges "The Hidden Truth," will debut tonight. In this first drama we will learn how the lie detector forces a well-known contractor to confess to the "Double Indemnity" murder of his wife.

themselves in her hand, and then she melded out. She said it was a fine play and who is this guy Jacoby anyway?

"All of this puzzles me. What have you got to say for yourself?"

I've got plenty to say, but it won't do me much good. You'll hear lots of people quoting "Jacoby rules" that don't exist except in their own imagination. The next time somebody springs one on you, ask to see it in print—either in one of my newspaper articles or in one of my books.

Actually, you picked a very fine time to freeze the pack. You had every reason to expect what eventually took place. You and vour nartner were right to be
