DIAL LITES-TODAY

7:30—KFI—The Rev. Dr. Norman Peale makes his seasonal return to NBC with a series of talks on "The Art of Living." Subject of his first broadcast is "How to Make Your Dreams Come True"... so wake up from a dream and put it into 12:00-KFI-This is the last Sunday broadcast of the ever popular "One Man's Family." Subsequently it will be heard Monday through Friday at 8:00 p. m.

1:06—KNX—"The Sweetest Music This Side of Heaven," that of Guy Lombardo, will be heard at this time each Sunday throughout the summer.

5:00-KNX-Leading singers of American, European and South American persuasion will guest with Percy Faith on "The Pause That Refreshes." Dorothy Kirsten inaugurates this series.

7.00.—KFI—Eddie Cantor makes his last appearance as emcee of "Take It or Leave It," and will return in the fall as an NBC headline. Jack Parr takes over in this spot next week.
6:30—KECA—Ceremonies dedicating a carillon tower to "the peace and understanding of the peoples of the world" features a speech by Warren B. Austin, chief of the U. S. Mission to the U. S.

KNX-When Eve Arden looks for Steve Allen to congratulate him on his new show, she finds Jack Benny instead. She looks again and this time is greeted by Groucho Marx. It seems that this is the welcoming committee for Steve when he embarks on his own big time show. :30—KHI—Tonight begins the summertime concert series of the "Chicago Theater of the Air." For the initial program, Carol Smith and Donald Gramm sing selections from "South Pacific" and "Carmen."

TELE-TIPS

7:45—KTLA—"Trade Winds" is the feature film on this channel tonight. The all-star cast includes Fredric March, Joan Bennett, Ralph Bellamy and Ann Southern.

8:69—KNBH—Chico Marx, disguised as a window cleaner, pops in on Perry Como at the "Supper Club." He then tries to convince the folks he is a rancher, too. Just how he makes this transition will have to be seen to be believed.

king. East returned a trump, and South finessed again, losing to West's queen. The defenders then had no trouble cashing their two aces. The contract was therefore defeated. If South had considered the hand as a whole, he would have realized that the correct line of play was to take no finesses at all. The contract would then be virtually assured.

South should lay down the ace and king of spades at the second and third tricks. He then leads a diamond with the intention of continuing the suit until the ace is forced out. This plan sets up diamond in dummy on which South can discard settled immediately. He would heart. Declarer therefore loses have lost a trick in each suit.
