L. B. Woman's Song Fails to Win Contest, But Heads for National Fame, Anyway

By WILLIAM R. NELSON

A IRLANES of the nation are expected to charm radio listeners from coast to coast, with a new ballad beginning tomorrow, when KFOX, Long Beach, leads the "parade" by introducing the new, potential hit tune, 'Darlin'," a song which failed to win the prize in a recent television competition, but landed on a Claude Kennedy Trio record instead. The new love song was written by a Long Beach housewife musician, for whom music writing has

Although the video rendition failed to capture the show's prize, it did impress a Los Angeles record company and prompted them to sign a contract with the composer for recording rights. The Kennedy Trio's arrangement of the seng is being distributed nationally and disc jockeys from coast to coast will begin playing it this week.
