WASHINGTON. (UP) These days, if you have something on a string-like a puppet-you're in the chips

Television has given the manikins a big boost, but the people who know how to tie a string to their fingers also are going great on "live shows." By actual count there are more than a hundred professional companies making the backwoods and the big towns.

Overseas, it's about the same.+

puppets is so ancient that the origin has been lost in the shuf-fle. Early Hindus, Egyptians, Greeks and Romans used hand-inke people. Un some places the puppet is more important than people. Thousands of puppet compan-ies now are said to be operating in Europe and a lot of them have government money behind them. (Their own money, I hope.)

Greeks and Romans used hand-made dolls that moved and acted

"Please comment on this match-point duplicate, a contract hand," requests a New Orleans of six no-trump would be prereader. "Should the final contract ferred. At rubber bridge a conbe six hearts or six no trump? I tract of six hearts is bettersuppose we ought to be in a slam partly for the greater safety of a suit contract and partly because of some sort.

"When the hand was actually of the honors. You shouldn't play played, my partner didn't make a hand at an unnatural contract his contract. West opened the because of honors, but it's fooljack of clubs, and South won ish to disregard honors when the with the ace. He took the ace and choice is between two equally

Jack of clubs, and South work with the ace. He took the ace and king of trumps and got the king of spades out of the way. Then he led a low diamond from his hand. When he put up dummy's queen, East won with the king. East returned a diamond, and South finessed the ten. That lost to West's jack, and the slam was defeated then and there. "I said he should have played the hand to make somebody lead diamonds to him. For example, after cashing the king of spades, he could cash the king of clubs and lead his remaining club. The winner. of that trick must lead a diamond, since a spade return from either opponent is clearly from either opponent is clearly fatal fatal. "As the cards lie, a diamond return from either opponent gives him the siam. My partner said that if the king and jack of diamonds were exchanged, his play would work and mine
