by Columbia, for they contain music by Sheboygan's famous quartet

Chordettes.

One is called "Harmony Time," with its eight sides were recorded by the Badger gals. The tunes are "When You Were Sweet 16," "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginny," "Shine On, Harvest Moon," "I'd Love to Live in Loveland," "When Day Is Done," "Tell Me Why," "Ballin' the Jack," and "Moonlight Bay."

All are in the best bashounds.

All are in the hest harbershop tradition, except "When Day Is Done," which gets a more sophisticated treatment.

The Chordettes also appear with Arthur Godfrey on two sides of "Arthur Godfrey and His Friends" another eight-side set. The girls join Arthur in "Makin' Love Ukulele Style" and "Candy and Cake." Other "friends" are Janette Davis, the Too-Fat trio, the Mariners, and Archie Bleyer's orchestra.

The Chordettes also appear with Arthur Godfrey on two sides of "Wanna Be Loved" and "If You Were Only Mine."

** Buddy Clark: revivals of "I wanna Be Loved" and "If You Were Only Mine."

** AVE VALE: Madison will lose a resident artist and one of its best non-professional actors next week. Both are Don Trachte, who draws the Sunday "Henry" cartoons and who has done stellar work with the Madison Theater hestra.

Both sets are available also on Guild in several of its produc-

The Trachtes have two children of so-so tunes.
