PERK UP YOUR PRIDE

were good. But somehow For just did not have time to waxe care of all your beauty plans for the holiday . . . and now it's too late!

Well, here are some quick beauty tricks to rescue your good looks and raise your enthusiasm when you peer into your mirror. Look at the list of common complaints below, find yours and take the advice given next to it in a hurry!

Face Lifters

Pale face: Stop envying your more fortunate sisters who have had time to loll in the sun and now are two shades ahead of you. Get yourself a foundation that is no more than two shades darker than your natural coloring; get some leg make-up to match. Use both sparingly; a little will show a lot. Wear light clothes, too. You will look darker by comparison.

Sunburned: So you've beaten the fireworks and are six shades of red already. Don't wash your face at all, but cleanse it with an oily-base cleaner.

Soak yourself at night in any reliable sunburn medicant. During the day, apply your curtains, bedspreads from New Braunfels ginghams at Mill Prices! Scrivener's, End of Broadway. (Adv.)

your regular foundation and silk scarf with all four ends after it has "set," apply a secend sparing layer. Mat your powder on.

Give up rouge until you fade. Use a brighter lipstick than usual so it can compete with the flush of your cheeks. No permanent: Those limpfalling wisps aren't as big a handicap as they appear! If your hair is short, tie it up in a colorful bandana in the daytime and top it with the silliest beach hat you can find — and whether you're going to the beach or sit on a shady porch.

If it's long, shine and smooth it with pomade and tie it back in a queue with a ribbon to match your outfit.

Dance Hairdo's

For the big dance on the Fourth, there are dozens of ways to cope with your hair distinctively. Pull that short hair back flat with lacquer over the crown of the head and hide the straggly back ends in a chignon of flowers. Get the long hair up in a topknot caught in an outsized tailored bow or length of gauzy veiling.

Mrs. Coral Spencer Beach To Marry in Washington

An event of unusual interest to friends here will be the marriage of Mrs. Coral Spencer Beach and Dr. Howard Karsner, which is scheduled July 5 in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Beach is well known in local Army and civilian circles, having made her home here for several years previously. The wedding will be held in the Washington Cathedral Wednesday at 11 a.m. Following the teremony, the pair will go to York Harbor, Maine, for two weeks before departing from New York for a month's visit in Cairo, Egypt. After their return, the couple will reside in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Barnes came home from their trip to Gulfport and the Great Smokies MINUS one of their attractive DAUGHTERS, we understand. They began the trip with both AGNES and ELLANORE as part of their interested family group. Then in Chattanooga Miss Agnes Barnes JOINED a party of Houston friends and away they went to the SHENANDOAH Valley and Washington, D. C.

Ellanore Barnes and Lucy Armstrong, proving staunchly that one can have a splendiferous time in the near vicinity are week-ending in Kerrville with the SCOTT SCHREINERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Saunders are holidaying in Niagara Falls over the Fourth with fascinating visits planned for later in New York City and Washington, D.C.

Harlandale Methodist Church Scene Of Meyer-Ruckel Marriage Rites.

Ruth Ruckel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ruckel, to Everett Meyer, son of Mrs. Katie Meyer of Alexandria, Minn., took place Saturday evening at Harlandale Methodist Church.

Vows were read by the Rev. E. Seale.

The bride wore a white organdy gown and a fingertip veil of illusion. She carried gardenias atop a white Bible. Miss Billie Ruth Ross of Mercedes served her cousin as

The marriage of Miss Mae maid of honor, and Miss auth Ruckel, daughter of Mr. Griselda Bock of Alexandria, Minn., niece of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Milton Schmidt, and ushers were Buddy Ross of Mercedes and Barton Dailey.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bridegroom's mother and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ross and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Andrews of Mercedes and Mr. and Mrs. Alain Meyer and son of Alexandria, Minn.
