Crime Mysteries Top List of Summer Radio Shows

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD

NEW YORK, July 11. (AP) Summer radio fare, with something like 65 replacement programs scattered over the networks, has settled down into four basic categories. They comprise crime mysteries, music, drama and quiz or audience shows in that order.

The out and out leader is the who-dun-it. There are 22 of them on the air now, either as replacements for other who-dun-its or various kinds of programs.

The nearest competitor is the musical show, with 15 running. They range from symphony through dance tunes. In the drama group are quite a few comedy type scripts for an overlal total of 12.

The other leader, the quix show, has produced nine summer items, several of which stress audience stunts rather than the Q and A routine.

For a time, it was thought the Hopelong Cassidy vogue would result in a flood of westerns for the summer. This hasn't panned out, and only four have shown up. The remaining classification, variety, has only three programs, including talent type presentations.

While most of radio's "big names" are vacationing, leading in some of the summer shows. In the list are Charles Boyer, Williams and Joel McCrae on NBC, also several of radio's veterans either have moved back or are continuing to broadcast, such as Jane Pickens, Penny Singleton and Dick Powell on NBC, Joan Davis, Guy Lom.

I & Pass Double

"THAT was the unluckiest hand but the point is that South had I I've seen in a year," said no reason to be sure of that fact. Hard Luck Joe. "The dummy was abcolutely useless to me!" East would have made his opening bid without his ace of clubs. But that ace in the North hand (in erchange for a low club), and useful to me," North replied bitterly. "I'd be glad to trade you in for a used stick of chewing in for a used stick of chewing gum."

in for a used stick of chewing gum."

"Now, now," said East cheerfully. "Nice children don't fight. If Joe says he was unlucky, I'm willing to believe him."

It was all very well for East to be so cheerful. He had just collected a penalty of 900 points from Joe, and he was perfectly willing to humor him.

The play had been very simple. West opened the six of spades, and East won with the king. East returned a low trump, hoping to make it possible to lead spades later on by getting rid of dummy's trump. Joe, playing the South hand, won a trump finesse with the queen.

with the queen.

Joe might have done better if he had then left the trumps laid down the ace of trumps. This assured East two trump tricks eventually.

The rest of the hand was a nightmare for Joe. He led the queen of clubs, and West took the king of clubs and got out with a spade.
