Tips and Bits

TIP O' THE MORNING: Concerts from the Hollywood bowl will be aired by WIBA at 2 p. m. Saturdays beginning July 29.

When State Secy. Dean Acheson speaks Tuesday on "World Affairs Today," the address will be broadcast by WIBA at 10 a. m.

Arthur Schwartz, writer and producer of musicals, will produce his first drama, Samson Raphaelson's "Eldra Crane." The Theater Guild relinquished its option on the play.

Helen Hayes is negotiating for rights to Sir James Barrie's "Mary Rose." She doesn't plan to appear in it, since "The Wisteria Trees" will still be going next season, she believes.

Betty Lou Gerson, long a favorite radio actress, has changed her professional name to Lynn Ainley. Six Madison students and former students at the University of Wisconsin are represented in a graphics show at New York university. They are Mary Ann Ackermann, John Colt, Sheila Huskins, Robert Knipschild, Edward Morarity, and George O'Connell.

Four Madison students are on the Wisconsin Union theater committee: John Collins, Joanne Guntter, Russell Kurth and John Keenan.

June Christy will open Aug. 8 at Hollywood's swank Mocambo getting $750 a week.
