'TIP O' THE MORNING: If 85 of Wisconsin's top high school musicians are good judges, you'll be hearing Paul Lavalle's "Band of America" march often. The musicians, chosen from the 1950 All-State band, played 40 new pieces for conductors and teachers at the music clinic last week. Given the chance to repeat one of the 40, the boys and girls voted unanimously for Lavalle's march.

Two high school musicians from the Madison area and one from Milwaukee received University of Wisconsin scholarships Sunday night at a concert presented by the All-State band.

Winners were Evelyn Smith Stitzer: Virginia Pile, Dodgeville, and Daryl Weishaar, Milwaukee. If one of them does not accept his scholarship, it will go to David Grade, Kewaunce, chosen as first alternate by the scholarship committee of the University of Wis-consin music clinic.

"These scholarships are awarded," said Prof. Leon L. Iltis, clinic director, "on the basis of general scholastic average in high school, recommendations of the high school principal and music director, and an examination in pertor, and an examination in per-formance and musical aptitude under Frederick C. Ebbs, Baldven here at the clinic.

Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Smith, and was salutatorian at Fennimore high school this year. Miss Pile is the daughter of Atty. and Mrs. Charles Pile. Besides music, her high school activities included being 1949 homecoming queen.

Miss Smith played French horn, Miss Pile played cornet, Weishaar played tuba, and Grade played altsaxophone in the All-State band.

For the first time in the 21-year history of the clinic, an outdoor concert had to be played indoors Sunday night. Rain began to fall.
