South decided to set up the dum-my and draw trumps from the North hand. With this object in North hand. With this object in mind he led the eight of hearts to dummy's nine, and ruffed a third spade with the jack of hearts. He next led the queen of hearts to dummy's king and returned dummy's last spade, ruffing with the ace of hearts.

By this time East had failed to follow with the heart and failed to follow suit in both spades and hearts. It was therefore clear that West had begun with five spades and four hearts. At this point, West held one spade, two hearts, and his original four cords in the minor suits. hearts, and his original cards in the minor suits.

HOLLOW VICTORY. Thief Takes 250

Empty Watches INDIANAPOLIS, July 26. (A) The guy who stole 250 gold watches from a room in a downtown Indianapolis hotel will have to depend on his own watch if he wants to know the Irving Miller, 43, of Clayton, Mo., a jewelry salesman, told police the watches were for display purposes only and contained no clock work.

Miller said the watches were stolen from his hotel room when he went to the lobby for a few minutes. He estimated their value at $3000.

Warner Bros. Seek O. K. to Sell KFWB

WASHINGTON. (A) Warner Bros. Broadcasting Corp. has applied to the Federal Communications Commission for permission to sell station KFWB, Los Angeles, to KFWB Broadcasting Corp. for $350,000. The purchasing company is headed by Harry Maizlish, long associated with the Warner organization.

short in diamonds than in clubs Acting on this assumption, South cashed the ace of diamonds and led a low diamond towards dummy. West was helpless to defeat the contract after this play. If he discarded dummy, dummy and declarer would then cash his two clubs and a trump cash his two clubs and a trump fulfilling his contract.

If West ruffed the low diamond, dummy would play low. West could next cash his spade. "Twenty thousand men are ever, it was important for South but would then have to lead a "Twenty thousand men are ever, it was important for South but would then have to lead a walking the streets of London," to begin the minor suit in which runs the old saying, "homeless and penniless—because they failed to lead trumps."
