7:80 KHJ—The "Murder at Midnight" story, "Terror Out of Space," tells what happens following a radar contact with the moon.

8:38—KFI—Selected passages from "Hamlet" chosen by the late John Barrymore and recorded by him will inaugurate a special four-program series "John Barrymore and Shake-speare." Later programs will present "Macbeth," "Richard III" and "Tweifth Night."

9:00—KNX—Circumstantial evidence points to hit-and-run in the death of an attractive young girl but intensive investigations indicate deliberate murder in tonight's "Line-Up" case.

9:00—KECA—The American Mercury is the fourth in a series of periodicals to be examined when "Author Meets the Critic." Lawrence Spivak, editor and publisher, will be present to answer questions of Marquis Childs and Dr. Robert Weaver, professor of economics at N. Y. U.

snoot pictures of the show while it is in progress.
5:00—KTLA—Gloria Swanson, who has certainly taken advantage of her "Hollywood Opportunity," will appear on that show and tell about her new picture "Sunset Boulevard."

didn't look that good), because he'd have been down only one at five hearts. The actual result was more unpleasant.

"Against the contract of five clubs, West opened the king of hearts. The man who was playing the South hand had read some of your stories about Generous George. He leered at both opponents, told them how much he had always liked them and opponents, told them now much he had always liked them, and then let West hold the first trick. "West hastily shifted to a trump, hoping to stall declarer's plans in this way. No defense would succeed, however. The remarkable play at the first trick assured the contract.

"South won the trump shift with the ten, led to the ace of diamonds, and discarded his losdiamonds, and discarded his los-ing diamond on dummy's ace of hearts. This, of course, was the purpose of the unusual play at the first trick.

"South was now able to ruff a diamond, thus keeping East out of the lead. He entered dummy by leading a small trump to the nine, and ruffed another diamond with a high trump. This established the rest of dummy's diamond. "South could now lead a trump
