TIP OF THE MORNING: The new "Hashknife Hartley" radio series may be filmed. A major company is said to be bidding for it.

Jerry Bartell, whose "Playtime for Children" is on WIBA Monday through Friday, this week will record an original music story, "The Men Who Come to Our House," for Young People's Records of New York. The script was written by Mrs. Bartell. The Bartells formerly lived in Madison, now reside at Whitefish Bay. He is president of a new Milwaukee radio station—WOKY—scheduled to go on the air Aug. 27.

Don Voegel will conduct a 16-piece orchestra in a concert at 6 p.m. Tuesday on the Memorial Union terrace. The free program will be sponsored by the Madison Musicians' assn. and the music performance trust fund.

Prof. Richard C. Church will conduct an outdoor preview concert by the All-State orchestra at 6:30 tonight on the Union terrace. The 90 young musicians will play the finale from Tchaikovsky's fourth symphony, the overture to "The Bartered Bride," "The Great Gate of Kiev," "El Relicario," McKay's "Suite of Fiddler's Tune's," and "Port Royal, 1861," by the same composer.

Corinne Branley, 1512 Adams st., will begin a song series on WHA and WHA-FM at 4 p.m. Tuesday. The soprano is a graduate of the Wisconsin School of Music, where she studied voice with Mrs. Siegfried Volkstedt. Her accompanist will be DeLores Miffler, 501 S. Mills st.

Here are names of Madison students serving on Wisconsin committee: Folk Fiesta — Jean Schroeder, Georgia Rasmussen, Karen Ratzel.

Danskeller — Fred Johnson. Library — Carolyn Zabrocki. Forum — Kenneth Luttman. Campa Dance — Dorothy Rae.
