KIDNEY GERMS May Keep You On The Run

Are you embarrassed and bothered by too frequent urination during the day and night? This symptom as well as burning, itching, stinging, bladder irritations, backache, stinging, cloudy urine, pus, or odor in the bladder, are signs of kidney trouble. In such cases the very first dose of OTRIN usually goes to work, right now helping you through these ways: 1. It helps remove certain irritating non-specific germs in acid conditions. 2. This helps relieve a frequent cause of many aches and pains. 3. By relieving and calming irritated tissues, it helps reduce frequent or smarting urination day and night. Get OTRIN from your druggist today for quick help. (Adv.)

Morning Programs

Express comics, KTSA, 9 a.m.—Stories in the popular San Antonio Sunday Express comics are dramatized by staff members of KTSA in a program of enduring popularity.

Church of the Air, KTSA, 9:30 a.m.—The Rt. Rev. Nicholas Wenger, director of Boys' Town will discuss "Christ's Love for Children."

Invitation to Learning, KTSA, 11 a.m.—Leo Tolstoy's great novel, "War and Peace," will be the book for discussion by Princess Alexander Kropotkin and Clifton Fadiman, who will be guests of Chairman Lyman Bryson. Because it treats war as a symbol of social forces striving for expression, the novel has contemporary meaning.

Afternoon Programs

Steve Allen Show, KTSA, 5:30 p.m.—The popular comedian demonstrates the differences between the advertisements of some summer resorts and their realities. Irene Woods is the featured vocalist.

Guy Lombardo Time, KTSA, 6 p.m.—The bandmaster has his Royal Canadians open his program with the "Third Man Theme," sung by Bill Flannigan with his guitar.

Evening Programs

Symphony Orchestra, WOAI, 7:30 p.m.—With Sigmund Romberg conducting, operatic soprano Jarmila Novotna has chosen as her aria, "Il Est Doux, Il Est Bon," from Massenet's opera, "Herodiade."

Pause That Refreshes, KTSA, 7 p.m.—Soprano Eileen Farrell and baritone Russ Emery join with Percy Faith and his orchestra for some of the finest semi-classical numbers on the air.

Contented Hour, KTSA, 9 p.m.—Dick Haymes throws a musical bouquet to his singing partner, Jo Stafford, when he sings "Roses," to open this popular program.

Horace Heidt, KTSA, 8:30 p.m.—Last week's winner defends his title on this popular variety show as a new group of contestants compete on one of America's most interesting programs.

Poland to Speak On Korea Crisis

Col. Eustace L. Poland, deputy commander, Fort Sam Houston, will be the principal speaker at a meeting of the Reserve Officers' Association Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Pan-American Room of the Gunter Hotel.

His subject will be the "Korean Situation." Col. Poland was for two years commander of the 31st Infantry in Korea and served on the International Boundary Commission set up to negotiate adjustments in the controversial boundary line. He is an authority on the events leading up to the North Korean invasion. Reserve officers and their wives are invited to attend this meeting.

Free Book on Arthritis and Rheumatism

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., Aug. 13.—So successful has a specialized system proven for treating rheumatism and arthritis that an amazing new book will be sent free to any reader of this paper who will write for it.

The book, entitled "Rheumatism," fully explains why drugs and medicines give only temporary relief and fail to remove the causes of the trouble; explains how for over 31 years The Ball Clinic has helped thousands of rheumatic sufferers.

You incur no obligation in sending for this instructive book. It may be the means of saving you years of untold misery. Address your letter to The Ball Clinic, Dept. 2306, Excelsior Springs, Missouri, but be sure to write today.
