DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

8:30—KECA—The politically protected racketeer is the one who portends the most potential danger. This serious situation is dramatized tonight on "This Is Your FBI".

9:00—KNX—This is surely the night for crime. "Up for Parole" hears the "Case of Travis Pons" whose record is punctuated by trigamy and countless romantic involvements in which women are defrauded of large sums of money.

9:30—KHJ—Jack Bailey is cast in the role of a detective who finally solves his first case. This "Comedy of Errors" should give amateur detectives a chance to find mistakes.

TOMORROW

4:30—KFI—An all-Wagner program with soprano Helen Traubel as soloist will be presented on "Hollywood Bowl" with Alfred Wallenstein conducting the orchestra. She will sing selections from "Tristan and Isolde," and the "Immolation Scene" from "Die Gotterdammerung."

TELE-TIPS

7:00—KECA—A toy world comes to life tonight on "Soapbox Theater." Seven-year-old Jimmy Mobley is on hand as emcee, while Judy Flare, 8, will play the trumpet.

8:00—KNBH—Monte Carlo and the whims of a roulette wheel play an important part in the true account of a guilt-plagued fugitive from the police. This "Believe It or Not" is titled "Loser Take All."

9:00—KTLA—Elizabeth Bergner and Douglas Fairbanks Jr. co-star in "Catherine the Great," the motion picture classic of the week.

9:30—KTTV—Maj. Frances Hartwell, Southern California deputy director of Selective Service, will be Roy Mapole's guest on "In Our Times." He will clarify the many questions that have been asked of his department during the present crisis.

TOMORROW

11:00—KTLA—Seven full hours of motion pictures have been scheduled for Saturdays to start this week. There will be two serialized Western adventures, followed by five complete feature films throughout the afternoon.

Surest Way to Make Contract

By OSWALD JACOBY
 (Written for N. E. A. Service)

"That was a nicely played hand, West to come close to making two partner," said Hard Luck Joe. "It's too bad we didn't play game." The hand was played at two no-trump.

West opened the king of clubs, and South won with the ace. Dealer knocked out the ace of diamonds, and West, desperately in search of a suit, shifted to a heart. South won in his own hand and knocked out the ace of spades.

Evidently South thought something had gone wrong with the bidding.

It was very foolish of Hard Luck Joe to bid two diamonds with the North hand. He should have doubled two clubs for penalties.

His partner had opened the bidding with one no-trump, thus showing almost half the high-card strength of the deck. North had about a trick and a half and could therefore tell that West must have the rest of the high cards and that the East hand must be a complete bust. Certainly the North-South hands contained far more high-card strength than the East-West hands.

Since North could tell that his side had more high cards and more trumps than the opponents, it was clearly impossible for

LOOKING IN ON THE DOOMED MEN

Outfit in Korea Praised as Best in Negro History

By STAN SWINTON

WITH THE U. S. 24TH INFANTRY REGIMENT, Korea, Aug. 18. (AP) This oldest U. S. Negro infantry regiment is fighting probably the best and proudest battle in the history of the American Negro foot soldier.

Men in combat with the Negro 92nd Division in Italy and with the 93rd Division in the Pacific rate this regiment above both. That does not mean it is the best regiment in Korea. Experts rank it somewhere in the middle.

I covered the 92nd Division in Italy as an Army combat correspondent in World War II.

A white colonel who was there said, "the 24th Regiment fights better than any Negro outfit in history, including the 92nd."

A Pittsburgh correspondent, Frank Whisonant of Detroit, who won a combat commission as a first lieutenant with the 92nd in Italy, said, "this Korean fighting is more bitter than in Italy. We can be proud of our men."

The weary men of this regiment have carried with honor the colors that flew through the Indian wars and up San Juan Hill in Cuba.

They have been in line 35 consecutive days. They attacked three times and captured Yecheon in July when towns captured by Americans in Korea were few and far between.

They attacked for three days and on the fourth captured a mountain position called "Little Casino" on the southern front. One company was down to 12 men in this attack.

The 24th, like most units in Korea, has lacked replacements for casualties, but the first big batch arrived Wednesday night.
