Allen Gets More Time to Meet Building Code

Lynol Allen, 1134 E. Mifflin st. was given until Sept. 20 by Superior Judge Roy H. Proctor Thursday to correct building code violations in his home and apartment house.

Allen was charged with failing to isolate his furnace room, having faulty plumbing, and installing plumbing himself without having a plumber's license.

Allen told the judge that he was unable to hire plumbers to make the alterations because they said they were "too busy with emer-gency jobs."

Bldg. Inspector Ray F. Burt told the court that Allen's property was an "emergency job," and that he would aid in obtaining a plumber to do the work.

Allen's family and another family live in apartments in the building, and rooms are also rented to two other tenants.

Driver Dies in Truck Collision Near Shawano

SHAWANO—(P)—A truck driver was burned fatally Thursday when his semi-trailer truck and an auto collided and burst into flames on Highway 29, 16 miles east of here.

Two others also were hurned.
The truck driver, Eugene Irven, 36, Altoona, died at a Green Bay hospital.

The other two injured, both hospitalized at Green Bay, are Tony Ziemer, Shawano, driver of the car, who received burns and a broken arm, and his passenger, William Meyer, also of Shawano, who, in addition to burns, suffered, two broken arms and two broken legs.
