DIAL LITES - TONIGHT

6:00—KFI—A thief and some stolen microfilm turn up in England, the first dead and the latter, missing. It is Steve Mitchell's job to solve the case in which a picture postcard is the only clue on "Dangerous Assignment."

7:00—KECA—St. Adams and Josh Kinsey, neighboring ranchers, couldn't get along but when the "Lone Ranger" rescues their youngsters from serious danger that is the end of the "Feud on the Range."

7:30—KNX—Brian Sullivan, tenor star of the "Desert Song," will be the guest on "Hollywood Music Hall." Star Lucille Norman will sing "I'll Follow My Secret Heart" and join Sullivan in a duet number.

8:30—KHJ—A private investigator has only an hour to clear an innocent man of a crime and bring a real criminal to justice. He succeeds during the "Final Hour" as told during the "International Airport" dramatization.

TELE-TIPS

8:00—KNBH—The entire National League football schedule of the Los Angeles Rams is to be televised. The games which are played at home will be televised "live" and the away-from-home games will be shown on Thursdays on film. The opener tonight will be played against the Chicago Cardinals.

8:30—KECA—Inspector Pierce (Edmund Lowe) is presented with a double problem when he discovers that "Twins Can Die Twice." "Your Witness" will give the watching audience a chance to view a re-enactment of a crime and then decide why a death certificate was made out for one twin when the other is the corpse.

9:00—KTLA—William Collier and Lucille Gleason star in the comedy "Successful Failure."

9:30—KTLA—Arena-type staging is used in the next edition of "Hands of Destiny" when the "Fire-Bug" story is unraveled. In it, a youthful pyromaniac is finally trapped in one of his own conflagrations.
