Smart Playing of This Hand Really Termed 'Generosity'

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Service.

"You're both such fine fellows of spades from his hand and that I can't make up my mind which of you I like better," said Generous George. "I'll tell you what I'll do though I'll give you this trick and you can decide between you who deserves it more. Anything you say is all right with me."

"We're really touched," growled West. "Some day you're going to get laryngitis and them you won't be able to play bridge."

"We're spade, how would then be forced to lead diamonds. Dummy would be able to win a trick with the jack of diamonds and take the hearts. West therefore played a low spade, hoping that his partner could exit safely in clubs.

'Meet the Press' Suing Mutual

NEW YORK, Aug. 29. (27) Law-rence Spivak and Martha Roun-tree, owners and producers of the radio program, "Meet the Press," have sued the Mutual Broadcasting System for $1,250,000.

They claim Mutual replaced their program with a copy called "Reporters Roundup" less than a week after dropping "Meet the ress" on Aug. 4. Their complaint, filed in State Supreme Court here yesterday, said "Meet the Press" started in said "Meet the Press" started in 1944, featuring newspaper-type interviews with prominent persons. Last May, Spivak and Miss Rountree said, Mutual gave notice it would cancel an agreement, running to the end of 1952, to carry the program.
