170 Workers Go Out on Strike in Fort Wage Dispute

FT. ATKINSON - A wage dispute sent 170 workers of the Creamery Package Co, here cut on strike Friday.

The company and union were reported about 14 cents apart in negotiations.

Members of the AFL Federal Labor union 20935 voted 144 to 11 on the same ballot Friday to reject a company offer of a 5-cent hourly wage increase and to go out on strike.

Bernard Wegner, president of the union, said pickets would be stationed around the plant on N. Main st. Tuesday.

About 110 office workers and engineering, time study, inspec-tion, and research and development workers remained on the job. R. R. Slates, plant manager, said no plans have been made for laying off of the workers still on duty. Both Wegner and Slates empha-sized they were ready to bargain at any time either presented a proposal. Wegner reported that the union is asking a 19-cents hourly wage increase to bring wages up to par with area rates for comparable work.

The union also is asking three weeks' paid vacation for 15-year employes, who now get 17 days; an increase in company insurance from $1,000 to $1,500, and increases in hospital room payments from $5 to $6 per day.
