Tayern Operators Face $35,500 Assault Suit

A $35,500 assault and battery nesday by Mrs. Edna Swenson, Cottage Grove, against Harold Feuling and Rose Turke, operators of the Cutter Inn tavern on High way 16 between Columbus and Mrs. Swenson charged that on Sept. 10, Feuling assaulted and beat her, "causing injury, shame, and embarrassment."

Mrs. Swenson asked $15,000 damages for her injuries, $10,000 puni-tive damages, $10,000 for "mental pain and anguish" which she has suffered and will have to suffer, and $500 for her clothing which she charged was ruined by Feuling.

College Students Trail Indian Pottery Secret

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -- (U.P.) -Experiments at Florida State University have produced evidence that early Indians used ordinary soil to make serviceable pottery.

There is very little pure clay in Florida, and scientists have wondered about the origin of pottery chips turned up at old Indian mounds. The F-S-U archeology class recently worked ordinary soil into 12:20 News models of prehistoric vessels, 1.00 Change baked them over an open fire and came up with pots similar to those found at Indian sites.
