DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

6:30—KFI—The inside story of Big Ed Colucci, one-time Chicago ward boss, will be revealed in "Death to the Czar" "Jack Lait, Confidential" will tell what happened to the Sicilian immigrant who became head man in an extortion ring.

7:00—All networks will carry the opening of the Community Chest Drive. President Truman will head the rally of an all-star entertainment program in which Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Dennis Day and a host of others will appear.

7:30—KHJ—The tall thin Frenchman seemed out of place in the rough border country of the 1870's. But Paul Duval could well be the care of himself, as related during the "Cisico Kid and the Pirate Quest of Paul Duval."

8:30—KECA—A documented account of the working of a clever gang of armed robbers will be dramatized by Jerry Devine during this broadcast of "This Is Your FBI." This week's case shows how a special agent rounds up the thieves during the excitement of a town's "Gold Rush Week."

TELETYPE

6:30—KTSL—The popular sports feature, "Touchdown," returns to the airwaves tonight. Covering the entire football season it presents the all-action film capsule roundup of the preceding week end's top college gridiron contests.

7:00—KTTV—The program that attempts to find pets for homes and homes for pets, "Pet Exchange," goes into its second season tonight.

7:30—KECA—Perc Westmore, celebrated Hollywood makeup artist of glamour queens, and Dolores Poole, 12-year-old hula dancer, join in the fun as they guest on "Life With Linkletter."

9:00—KTLA—Joan Parker and Robert Donat share star billing in "The Ghost Goes West," the motion picture classic of the week.

9:00—KNBH—Janis Paige, Hollywood film actress and the new singing emcee, Bob Russell, will appear in a skit to open "Versatile Varieties" when it returns to television after a short summer hiatus.

Calf Kisses Actress Greer Garson Wetly

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 29. (UP) You would have thought Greer Garson gets kissed by a calf every day. The film star was strolling through the cattle barns at the New Mexico State Fair yesterday when she was asked to pose beside a four-day-old calf. As she did so, she casually pecked the calf on the nose. The little heifer liked it and kissed right back—damply, enthusiastically and smack dab on the actress' mouth. Greer didn't turn a red hair. The owner of the calf, Roy Delashaw, 21, of Bovina, Texas, ended up by naming the calf "Deia Swiss Greer Garson."
