Video Set Makers Protest FCC Color System Edict

By MAX HALL

WASHINGTON, (AP). The television manufacturing in-dustry today appeared to be saying "no" to a government proposal on color television.

What happens next in the long struggle over color TV is anybody's guess.

which they now are producing at a tremendous rate. The FCC decided that the best method of color TV yet developed was that of the Columbia Broad-casting System. But the CBS method is not "compatible" with present-day sets because if can't be picked up on those sets even in black-and-white pictures. So the FCC asked the industry to make sets with "bracket stand-both present-day TV stations and CBS-type color TV stations. COMPLAINTS MADE

A lesser player might have cashed the good queen of spades right then and there. George could have done this and still made the hand, provided he knew exactly where the missing cards were but George had a sure thing play. He led a low diamond, finessed the queen and when West won with the king, George spread his hand. West was helpless. He chose to return a diamond George won with the ten, entered dummy with the jack of trumps and then cashed the good spade discarding his losing jack of clubs. Of course, the opponents could have beaten the hand if they had defended perfectly. That is why they were so annoyed by George's speech. The error lay with East. After The error lay with East. After they were so annoyed by George's as that the article alter speech. The error lay with East. After winning the first trick with the king of spades he should have led the six of diamonds.
