Players With 'Weaknesses' Get Selves Set 1830 Points

By OSWALD JACOBY
Writer for N.Y.A. Service

When Doubling—Dan and Bill, the bold bidder, cut as part-ners, anything is likely to happen to them, and frequently does. Bill likes to bid without having his values, and Dan likes to double without having his double, and when each takes his favorite ac-tion on the same hand, the ex-pense is terrific.

Consider this catastrophe. Let's start with Bill's double of two spades. He certainly was shy in high cards, but he was void of spades and hoped to be able to either to sacrifice cheaply at four or maybe five in any suit his partner could bid or possibly to push his opponents one too high.

South's jump to four spades was a very clever bid and based on the fact that he knew Doubling Dan was sitting in back of him. He didn't really expect to get dou-bled, but one can always hope.

Dan's double of four spades was downright silly. True, he did have two aces, and if they both made and his partner could also take two tricks, he would set the hand. However, he was playing with Bill the Bold Bidder and Bill had passed originally. Finally, he must have known that he could not possibly beat the hand two tricks and should have been perfectly happy if he could beat it one.

When North redoubled, poor Bill wanted to run away from the redouble, the club where he was playing, and possibly the country, but he had no place to go. Fur-thermore, he was void of spades and for once in his miserable life, Dan had a really sound double with five good spades.

Dan opened a small trump. De-clarer knocked out the ace of dia-monds, discarded one of dummy's clubs on his diamonds and had no trouble making his contract with two overtricks, for a total score of 1830 points on the hand.

It is worthy of note that Bill and Dan would not have been in any great trouble at five clubs had they chosen to bid it. South would lead the king of diamonds and would continue that suit when he got in with the ace of trumps. Unless North would make

Sanitation Officials Meet Here Oct. 11

Directors of all the county san-itation districts will be guests of the city Oct. 11, when they will hold a joint meeting at the City Hall, the Mayor's office an-nounced.

Mayor Burton W. Chace and Councilman Herbert R. Klock-slem, local directors of District No. 3, of which Long Beach is the major part, will be hosts.

After a business session at 2:30 p. m., addressed by A. M. Rawn, chief engineer and general man-ager of the sanitation districts, the directors will inspect the new out-fall tunnel being constructed through the Palos Verdes Hills.

the brilliant play of trumping in on one of South's high diamonds and returning a heart. Bill would only be down one trick, while even that best defense would only set him two.

WHEN SLEEP WON'T COME AND YOU FEEL GLUM

Use Chewing-Gum Laxative—REMOVES WASTE...NOT GOOD FOOD

When you can't sleep—feel just awful because you need a laxative—do as MILLIONS do—chew FEEN-A-MINT.

FEEN-A-MINT is wonderfully different! Doctors say many other laxatives start their "flushing" action too soon...right in the stomach. Large doses of such lax-atives upset digestion, flush away nutri-tious food you need for health and energy...you feel weak, worn out.

But gentle FEEN-A-MINT, taken as re-commended, works chiefly in the lower bowel where it removes only waste, not good food! You avoid that weak, tired feeling. Use FEEN-A-MINT and feel fine, full of life! 25¢, 50¢, or only 10¢
