KLAC 870 KFI 640 KMPC 710 KECA 790 KHJ 930 KFWB 980 KNX 1070 KFOX 1290 KFAC 1330 KGER 1390

The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters. No responsibility assumed for last-minute changes which sometimes are made.

DIAL LITES.—TONIGHT

8:00—KFI—"Night Beat," the popular dramatic series starring Frank Lovjoy, moves to this new time. Tonight's story finds Lovjoy investigating the problems of an ex-policeman who has amnesia.

8:30—KECA—The nation's first globe-trotting disc jockey, Jimmy Wakely, is off with the Bob Hope troupe to entertain the fighting forces in Korea. He will do interviews by tape and the transcription will be rushed to the U. S. to be heard at this time nightly.

9:00—KTLA—Chester A. Riley vows as usual that he'll bring his parents from Brooklyn to Los Angeles on the opening broadcast of the "Life of Riley" starring William Bendix. But when a radio program undertakes to carry through this plan, the head of the Riley family is in for a good deal of consternation.

9:30—KNX—A special broadcast, sounding a dramatic prelude to the "Crusade for Freedom" campaign to enroll all Americans on a "Declaration of Freedom" scroll, will be presented with Arthur Godfrey as the narrator.

10:30—KHJ—Jack Bailey will lend a helping hand to the World Series players as he delivers a dissertation on the fine points of baseball during the "Comedy of Errors" broadcast.

11:15—KNX—President Harry S. Truman will himself make the closing address on the special program, "Like Everybody Else," which points up the vocational training necessary to rehabilitate the physically handicapped.

TOMORROW

The football season is under way so "whether you look or whether you listen" here is today's line-up:

11:15—KECA—Wisconsin vs. Illinois.

12:30—KNX—Football Roundup... more than 20 games will be covered either by direct pickup or by special wire report.

1:45—KHJ—Washington State vs. U. S. C.

1:45—KFI—Washington vs. U. C. L. A.

On TV both KTTV and KFMB will carry the California vs. Pennsylvania game at 1:45.

TELE-TIPS

7:30—KECA—Televisioners will "get the bird" as the high light of "Life With Linkletter." The birds in this case are the world-famous mynah birds with their handler Jack Owens showing off their amazing routine.

8:00—KTTV—"The wistful story of an old romance renewed, 'The Married Look' stars Paul Kelly as Edward the hero with Lois Wilson as his wife. Betsy Blair also has a part in this 'Ford Theater' production.

9:00—KTLA—A most unusual story unfolds when Laurence Olivier, Ralph Richardson and Valerie Hobson co-star in "Q Planes," the Motion Picture Classic of the week.

9:00—KNBH—In celebration of its first year on video, "The Big Story" presents the dramatization of the work of reporter Ray Girardin of Detroit, Mich., who solved the murder of a wealthy philanthropist.

Columnist Answers Readers' Questions

By CRISWELL

Q: When will I marry? Will Bill be transferred? Onelda M. D. XYZ, A: Spring, 1951. Yes. There will be oil in Colorado.

Q: Will my husband make a success? Mrs. Margaret C. A: Yes, by early 1951. You will be out of debt soon, and move to a larger place. The watch is misplaced. You will have one more child.

Q: Will this young man work out satisfactorily? Kay C. A: He will work out, but it will be you who will run the family, as he is a little weak. You can easily dominate him. Keep all your property in your own name whatever you do.

Q: Did I do the right thing in my husband's case and will he get good care? Mrs. E. C. A: Yes, you will have no regrets. You will feel much better. You will make this trip. The property deal was O. K. Things look very good.

Q: Will Clarence M. sell his land? L. M. C. K. A: Yes, at a very good price. Your brother will get oil next year.

Q: How will finances be? Will my husband work steady? 13X Mrs. C. A: Very good after December. Yes, your son will live in the north. You will see him very soon.

Q: Will my luck ever change? Clinton D. C. A: Yes; 1951 will bring you the opportunities you have been waiting for.

Q: How will things turn out for me? Mae E. 2643. A: An active period will be starting by the 15th of next month. There is a move for you at that time which will lift your spirits. Do not be too discouraged about your present problem, as a ray of light will quickly set things aright. You will change your attitude about many things and grow into a fine, even tempered life which will demand respect from others.

Q: Is there a change for me soon? Mrs. Doris B. A: Yes, by Dec. 5th, and it will make you very happy.

Q: Will I stay here? Will I marry? Will I find a job? Esther B. A: Yes, until next spring. Yes, within one year. Yes, by next week. Your son is still living and you will hear from him. You will come into a great period of personal happiness and prosperity.

Q: Why does my husband act the way he does? Am I a fool to work so hard? Ruth B. A: He is just contrary, and you have spoiled him by catering to him all the time. You will soon make him share half the burden. Your daughter-in-law's watch will be found. The baby will be a boy.

Q: Should I move from this place? Jessie M. B. A: Yes, you would feel happier in another location, and you will make this change very soon. Good fortune awaits you at every turn.

Q: Did this boy my daughter wants to marry rob the station? Mrs. J. A. B. A. No. I sense that your daughter will have a change of heart. Do not worry about the way things have been going, as it will all turn out to your liking.

Q: What became of that con-
