The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters. The responsibility assumed for inaccuracies, changes which sometimes are made.

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 8:00—KNX—This is kinda hard to believe—but Milton Berle will be the star tonight on the "Suspense" broadcast thriller. The only person who finds nothing surprising about it is, naturally, Berle. This should be good.
- 9:00—KECA—Bredrick Crawford, who holds the Oscar as America's best screen actor, will play the role created by Clark Gable when he stars in the radio adaptation of "Any Number Can Play," during the "Screen Guild" presentation.
- 9:30—KHJ—Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), chairman of the special Senate crime investigating committee, will hold the news conference with noted reporters during the "Reporters Roundup" broadcast.
- 10:00—KFI—More of the situation comedy tonight as Henry Aldrich and Homer embark upon a career in the printing business. They set up a printing press and Henry's first bad move is a sample wedding invitation using his sister Mary's name instead of a fictional one.
- 10:30—KNX—Two crooks posing as representatives of a prison welfare fund work a graft by lecturing and passing the hat in small town churches with one of them posing as a reformed jailbird. The story is titled "The Straight Man" and the show is "FBI in Peace and War."

TELE-TIPS

- 8:00—KTTV—The Show Goes On, termed the "national booking" office of the air, with quick-witted Robert Q. Lewis as emcee will be seen at this new-thru starting tonight.
- 9:00—KTLA—The main event tonight from the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium will feature a tag team match between the Dusek Brothers and the Becker Brothers.
- 9:30—KNRH—If it's football you're looking for, here it is—with the Rams versus the Eagles battling it out.
- 9:30—KECA—A new series of "Blind Dates" telecasts, which has been preceded by several "warm-up" programs, starts tonight at this time. With as fine a selection of eligible young men as ever entered the portals of the Ivy League, and as lovely a group of ladies as ever kept them company, the "blind dates" make their rounds of the New York glamour spots.
- 10:45—KTLA—The famous Dempsey-Tunney bout of Sept. 14, 1926, will be featured tonight on "Greatest Fights of the Century."

French Abandon Indochina Town Recently Seized

SAIGON, Indochina, Thursday, Oct. 12. The French today announced their withdrawal from the former key Vietminh base of Thai Nguyen, in North Indochina, which they seized less than two weeks ago.

A French military spokesman said the withdrawal had been made voluntarily, without any Vietminh pressure, to a new defense line about 15 miles south of Thai Nguyen.

The spokesman explained that Thai Nguyen, 40 miles north of Hanoi and the center of a large area of fertile rice lands, had been occupied to destroy important Vietminh installations in the area. That had been accomplished, he declared.

However, Associated Press Correspondent Kenneth Lizes reported in a delayed dispatch from Hanoi yesterday after accompanying French forces operating in the area that the French had planned to make Thai Nguyen the anchor fortification for a series of 30 brick fortresses guarding the area.

Santa Ana D. A. R. s Hear Marine Officer

SANTA ANA, Oct. 12. At their meeting in the home of Mrs. Cotton Mather, 2022 N. Rose St., Santa Ana chapter members of Daughters of the American Revolution made plans for a card party to be given soon as a benefit for the national building fund. Mrs. Neal Beisel was named to the party regent, Mrs. Barney Coleman. Speaker for the afternoon was Lt. Harry Renfro, El Toro Marine Base assistant public information officer.

Art Group Directors Meet; Plan Program

BELLFLOWER, Oct. 12. A board meeting for officers of the Bellflower Art Association was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Padrick, 548 Blaine Ave. The program for the year was discussed, during which the group, presided over by Miss Roberta Routh, president, expressed their appreciation to Art Landy, their advisor, for having been instrumental in creating community wide interest in the art of painting.
