The following programs are excerpted from reports provided by the broadcasters. No responsibility assumed for last-minute changes which sometimes are made.

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 8:00—KFI—Randy Stone, the unorthodox night reporter, becomes involved in a very strange adventure during the "Night Beat" broadcast tonight. Of course this is Friday the 13th which has a direct effect on the news hawk.
- 8:00—KFI—Chester A. Riley purchases an Essex (remember them?) and boasts he will pass the driving test... but he does not pass the test and is ashamed to admit it to his family... however, he takes his family for a spin... and of all things... crashes into a police car... you take it from here.
- 8:00—KNX—Here is a show that is resuming its broadcasting. Known as "Broadway Is My Beat," the show stars Larry Thor as detective Danny Clover. This is a theatrical beat... and offers many unusual crime cases.
- 8:00—KECA—If major crimes in the United States continue at their present rate throughout 1950, an all-time record will have been established by year's end. That will be a disclosure in a message from J. Edgar Hoover, our nation's top "G" man, which will be read between acts on the "This Is Your FBI" program. The story tonight concerns a bank teller titled, "The Phantom Bandit."
- 8:00—KNX—In this original story written by Anthony Ellis, a young girl named Ferris, who is on a holiday, ends up in confusion of espionage... all because of a woman.
- 8:00—KECA—When Ozzy of the "Ozzy & Harriet" team, comes under the spell of spelling it spells something new and refreshing during their situation comedy adventures tonight.

FOOTBALL TOMORROW

- 12:45 A. M.—KECA—Michigan vs. Army.
- 12:45—KNX—Nation-wide football roundup... from stadium to stadium.
- 1:45—KFI—U. S. C. vs. California.
- 2:15—KHJ—Stanford vs. Santa Clara.

TELETYPE

- 8:30—KTLA—The surprise of Purdue walloping Notre Dame 35-14, which is the first loss sustained by the "Irish" in their past 39 games will be shown tonight on "Touchdown," the TV capsule football game.
- 7:15—KTLA—Bud Stefan chucks aside his music, voice and dancing lessons, and drops his reducing diet on tonight's viewing of "Yer Ole Buddy." He thinks his fans will like it this way much better.
- 7:00—KECA—The one-time sidekick of Carmen Miranda will appear tonight with Art Linkletter as he calls the session to order and proceeds with the business of boffs and bounty.
- 8:00—KNBH—The true dramatic account of a murder which was solved through sheer magic, "The Dead Will Speak" will be seen on the "Believe It Or Not" show. The story takes place 30 years ago high in the Tyrolean Alps and tells how a murderer is trapped by one of the most ingenious methods of crime detection in history.

Western Star Goes to Peanut Festival

He is not going to roll any peanuts down the street, but Monogram western star Johnny Mack Brown will otherwise participate in the annual peanut festival late this month in his home town of Dothan, Ala. He flies there after completing "Outlaw Gold." The affair opens Oct. 21, and he will be grand marshal of the festival in his home town of Dothan, Ala.

OUT OUR WAY

Columnist Answers Readers' Questions

By JERON KING CRISWELL

Q: Did Mother have some money in her possession and if so what happened to it? Am I taking the right kind of treatment? Mrs. Joseph S. A. No. The belongings will be divided soon. You will have your own home again in that vicinity. Your son will make you very proud of him.

Q: I am 45, unemployed. Will I find work soon? Frank S. A: Yes, you will work in some sales force, and later be in charge. You will be able to pay a small amount down on your home next year.

Q: Will we have a baby in January? Will I take this tall-oring course? Mrs. Howard S. A: Yes, a daughter. Yes, but you must start now, as it is G. I.

Q: Will I ever marry again? Mrs. Pearl O. S. A: Yes, in 1951. You will have a home of your own. You will sell your lot in Texas. You will get a lawyer to take that Oklahoma case on percentage. Your son will stay here. Your granddaughter will make out O. K.

Q: Will I ever again see this man I met? Will R mean anything to me? Mrs. Leta R. A. Yes, but it will mean nothing. Not much, but there will be someone else by Christmas. You face a very exciting 1951.

Q: Will my husband of 20 years come back to me? Mrs. Mary R. A: Yes, but there will be some one else before that. Put down your foot and stop your relatives imposing the shameful way they do. Your lonely days will soon be over. Q: How long will I take care of this aged relative? Inez M. B. A: Not too long. You will marry a man that will meet you on a trip. You will soon have a host of new friends, for your future is very bright.

Q: What does the future hold for me? The past has been very hard. Ernest T. P. A: Your bad luck is all behind you, and you will find that from this moment on, you will prosper at every turn. Your pathway is bright and shining.

Q: What is wrong with my husband? Mrs. W. A. G. A: The by Dec. 15. Yes, you face great personal satisfaction.

Q: Did I do wrong in buying a home? Mrs. Bertha M. S. A. No, you will be able to get out profitably. Your husband will be working soon. Your married daughter is homesick, and you will visit her soon. You will feel ever so much better by the end of next month.

Q: How will things turn out for me this time? Mrs. H. G. K. A: Very fine, and you will not be sorry for the perseverance you spent on this project. March 27th will be very good for you.

Q: Will things improve? Mrs. Ida M. K. A: Yes. Watch your diet and get rest. You will soon have a new proposal of marriage. 1951 will be good to you.

Q: Will my husband get a raise in salary? Mrs. Jessie M. K. A: Yes, by November. His job seems secure but there is a change later. You will have a new car this year. You will take that planned trip.
