above the hall's normal capacity, for chairs were added to accommodate the crowd.

It had just about every kind of quartet singing you can imagine, from the comparatively quiet rhythms and harmonies of Madisons's Cardinals to the rousing, roistering shenanigans of the Mid-States Four of Chicago.

The Chicago group, 1949 international barbershop champion, climaxed the 2½-hour program with a period of fun which would have put Olson and Johnson to shame. The men jammed into a few minutes more gags and capers than one would believe possible. On top of it all, they did some first-rate harmonican and are Grant of the state of the surface of the safet of wisconshin Bureau of Purchases at 1.35. 1315, 325, 748, and 10:30; "Comarche 1.35 and 10:3

In today's deal Mr. Dale opened with the four of hearts and Mr. Masters' king fell to the ace. Now it was clear to Mr. Champion that if the club finesse worked he could win four clubs, two hearts, and three spades, for game.

On the other hand if the club finesse were wrong, then he would have to win at least one diamond trick. And that would involve letting the enemy in twice.

He assumed from the opening lead that Mr. Dale had a long lead that Mr. Da
