TIP O' THE MORNING: Watch for Doris Day's recording of "Load of Hay" to start climbing soon. This Columbia dishing, with the Page Cavanaugh trio giving a noble assist, is only a little less than terrific.

The dictionary used by this department (and used often), says that "fabulous" means: ONE. Belonging to fable; fictitious; mythical.

TWO. Passing the limits of belief; incredible.

It's a word used in radio publicity and "plugs" almost as often as "wonderful" and "well" are used on the air.

So let us take another 30-second break for a brief salutation to NBC's press department. No character could be described more fittingly as "fabulous" than Nero Wolfe, and no better word could be chosen for that erudite gourmet.

NBC stations will carry a series of dramas about Wolfe at 7 p. m. Fridays, beginning this week, apparently replacing Ilona Massey's "Top Secret," which has been shunted all over the night-time schedule for months.

For Wolfe fans, there's still more good news. Sydney Greenstreet, who even looks like Nero Wolfe, will be the title role. A fine actor, he has been seen here in person with the Lunts as well as on the screen (notably in "The Maltese Falcon").

There'll be a part, too, for Archie Goodman, the detective's leg man, but it hasn't been cast.

THEATER GUILD: The Madison Theater Guild on Monday began a community-wide sale of coupon books for its 1950-51 season of three adult plays. Fifteen block chairmen are handling the sales, under the direction of Marvin R. Foster, general ticket sales chairman, and Maxine B. Lighthall, assistant chairman.

The season will open next month with "You Can't Take It with You" to be presented Nov. 2 and 3 at West high school and Nov. 4 at East.

Block chairmen are: Mrs. Paul Geisler, 4028 Council crest; Mrs. Joe Klein, 3522 Lucia crest; Carol Cowan, Rt. 4; Jerry L. Dame, 1717 University ave.; Mrs. DeAlton Neher, 3822 Cross st.; and Mrs. Edward Karnack, 158 Rodney ct.; Les J. Melnhart, 803 State st.; Paul A. Knoke, 319 W. Doty st.; Mrs. Walter E. Males, 2533 E. Johnson st.; Mrs. Marvin Ruffel, 614 E. Gorham st.; Natalie Menning, 2010 Helena st.; Mrs. Eleanor R. Grant, 2825 Oakridge ave.; Jack Wenner, Route 1, Middleton, and Mrs. James Geisler, 3120 Oxford rd.

Lines on the Stars: Cass Daley was once fired from a factory job for doing a devastating impersonation of the foreman.

Dick Powell worked for the telephone company in Little Rock, Ark., and occasionally sang at dances—just a spare-time hobby.

When Brian Donley was 18, he was a bugler with Gen. John J. Pershing in Mexico. Kate Smith raised $4,000,000 for the Red Cross—during peace time.

Ed Wynn as a child worked in his parents' millinery shop in Philadelphia, and convulsed customers by trying on the more outlandish creations himself.

Fans of NBC's "Grand Ole Opry" have sent comedienne Minnie Pearl more than 50 pairs of old-fashioned shoes such as she wears on her Saturday night broadcasts—ranging from flannel Mary Jane strap-slippers to high button shoes with cloth uppers. If shoe rationing ever returns, Minnie is all set.

Walter O'Keefe was interviewed a contestant from Texas on his NBC Show, "Double or Nothing." "You know, there ARE poor people in Texas," quipped Walter. "Some even wash their own Cadillac."

SPOKEN WITH A BURR: The traveling crew of "Theater Guild on the Air" is rapidly becoming proficient with a Scottish brogue.

Blackwood on Bridge

(By Easley R. Blackwood)

Several of the kibitzers winced when Mr. Meek declined to overcall with two diamonds on this hand, but they stayed to praise his beautiful defensive play which sent the contract crashing to defeat.

South dealer. East-West vulnerable. North (Mr. Abel) S-Q 1 3 H-10 5 D-8 3 C-A Q 10 8 7 4

West (Mr. Meek) (Miss Brash) S-K 7 S-8 6 5 2 H-8 3 2 D-K Q J 5 4 2 D-9 7 C-K 8

South (Mr. Dale) S-A 10 9 4 H-A K Q J D-A 10 6 C-9 3

The bidding: South West North East 1 S Pass 2 C Pass 3 H Pass 3-S Pass 3 NT All pass

Mr. Meek led the king of diamonds and was permitted to win the first two rounds of that suit. Mr. Dale won the third round, discarding a small heart from dummy while Miss Brash played a spade.

Of course, Mr. Dale realized his chief problem was to keep Mr. Meek out of the lead. He figured his contract would be easy if the clubs were favorably divided and if Mr. Meek had either of the outstanding club honors.

At the next trick he led the trey of clubs, intending to put in dummy's 10 if Mr. Meek played low. As you see, it's plan would have worked admirably. Miss Brash

A CLOSED CASE? WELLSTON, O.—(U.P.)—The case of the vanished parking meter has police baffled. Not only did the entire meter and standard disappear, but the hole in the sidewalk was cemented.

Next time let's try—The CALIFORNIA WAY! YOU DON'T NEED a lot of fancy foods. Dinner can be simple—yet a real party—the California Way! You make your table bright and gay... you give plain food extra-special flavor... add glamor to your whole dinner. And you do all these things so easily. Three chimes mean good times on NBC

For both out-of-New York originations this season the locale of the play has been Scotland. The Cleveland trip featured the highland musical "Brigadoon," while the Philadelphia origination, Oct. 15, was "I Know Where I'm Going," which takes place in the Hebrides islands.

CHRISTENED: The new trio on "Music with the Girls" has been named "Stepisters." Members are Corinne Whyland, Mary Jane Johnson, and Betty Sanders.

VERSATILE: Motion picture star Robert Ryan is versatile off-screen as well as on. Ryan is a former sandhog, sewer builder, bodyguard, photographer, model, and WPA laborer.

INTOXICATING AIR TALLADEGA, Ala.—(U.P.)—People sniffed and then took a deep breath. They couldn't believe their nostrils until they learned that city police were dumping 63 gallons of bootleg whiskey and 10 gallons of homebrew which they had confiscated.
