NEW YORK, Oct. 21. (U.E) The and Annette perplexed New York.

Dionne quintuplets went ers by appearing solemn and unshopping today with an eye to smiling wherever they went, but mother and nine brothers and sis-ters when they return to Canada explained that the quints were atreets and sites far below which they had toured by bus.

At a special radio interview with Mary Margaret McBride, the girls repeated five times in identical, unemotional voices: "Yes, we are having a wonderful time."

The quints and their party will return to Canada by train tomorrow to resume classes at Villa Notre Dame High School in Callander where they are 11th grade pupils.
