Heitmann Finds the Notes

By WILLIAM L. DOUDNA (State Journal Music Editor) Humor has touched often on the career of Fritz Heitmann, the German organist who will give two concerts in music hall this week...

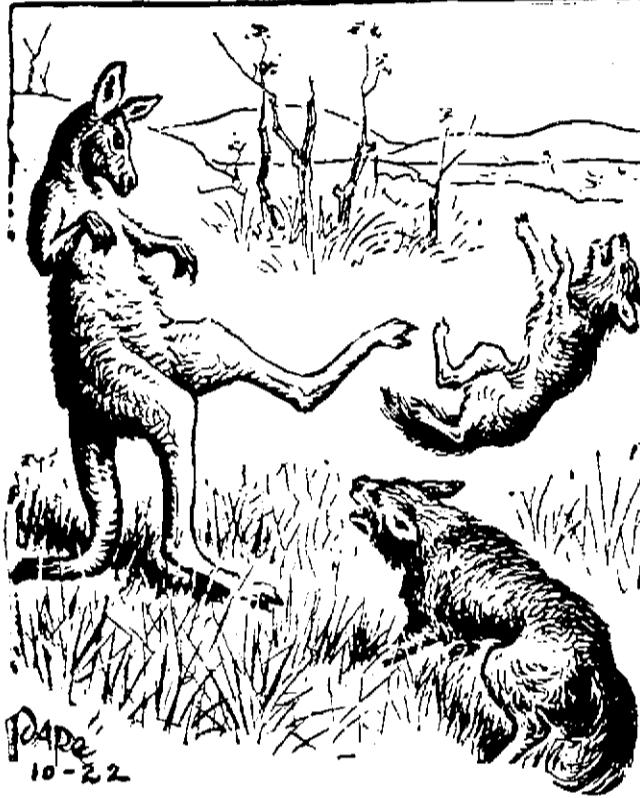

Only Heitmann's great sense of humor let him bear up under the embarrassment of a telegrapher's error a few years ago. In the post-war period, when food and luxuries were scarce...

Uncle Ray's Corner:

Kangaroos Can Outjump All

Fleas are classified as animals. Its body is only about six inches long. It can leap from along with other insects, and they in length, not counting the long tail...

Fleas have been given credit for being great jumpers because they can rise to a height of about 8 inches. This is, indeed, a big jump for a little insect...

Jury Clears Officer in Beloit Shooting

BELOIT, (AP)—A coroner's jury held Friday that a police officer 'acted in line of duty' when he shot and wounded fatally an 18-year-old youth fleeing from him.

The verdict was given at an inquest into the death of Duane Lester, 18, one of three youths apprehended by Officer Dell Green, who was on special duty at a junk yard Tuesday night.

Green called for the youths to halt and opened fire when they refused to heed him. Lester was hit in the right leg just below the groin severing an artery.
