The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters. No responsibility assumed for last-minute changes which sometimes are made.

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

6:00—KFI—In a period of four months a well-dressed bandit robs 15 food markets, posing as a salesman. He is stopped after much detecting and tracing by members of the police department.

7:00—KNX—When various suspects undergo rigid questioning during the "Line-Up" broadcast tonight, the most potent information regarding the murder of a policeman is extracted from a Bowery bum who saw the body dumped into a river bed.

7:00—KFI—Dick Powell and June Allyson will be co-starred in "Mrs. Mike" on the "Screen Directors' Playhouse" tonight.

8:30—KHJ—Sen. Wayne Morse (R-Ore.), a member of the important Senate labor and armed services committees, will be interviewed as the guest on "Reporter's Roundup" tonight. Everett Holles moderates.

TELE-TIPS

7:45—KTLA—Eddie Silverman dares to tear in quarters the photos of co-performers and resurrect from the heap of pieces an exact likeness of one KTSL personality on his next "It's a Neat Trick."

8:00—KTTV—"Starlight Theater," a new dramatic series seen earlier this season, starts a new series tonight on this station with Nancy Kelly in the lead role.

8:30—KECA—Anne Jeffreys, star of the Broadway hit, "Kiss Me Kate" will make her singing debut on the "Paul Whiteman Revue" tonight.

10:45—KTLA—The greatest fight of the century, according to some of the fight critics, will be seen tonight as the Louis-Mann fight is filmed via TV for your enjoyment.
