

The Sunday Spotlight:

Creating a Community Concert

By WILLIAM L. DOUDNA (State Journal Radio Editor)

Even when one lives in constant contact with radio, he can't appreciate fully the problems, the vast amount of work, the careful planning, and the time that go into a single broadcast unless he participates in one occasionally.

While the program was broadcast on Wednesday, Nov. 23, 1950, its production actually began early in 1949.

WHA has a first-rate collection of recordings it has made at concerts and of tapes and discs it has made for its own use in delayed and repeat broadcasts.

The composers represented were Prof. Oskar F. L. Hagen, Olive Endres, and Don Vogell.

Uncle Ray's Corner

Original 'Reed' Instrument

A week ago I spoke about the god Pan, who was an object of worship in ancient Greece. He was supposed to live in Arcadia, an area in the southern half of Greece.

Members of the Jewish and Christian religions speak of Satan or the Devil. Artists have made many pictures of Satan, and it is a common thing to show him as having horns, pointed ears, hoofs, and a tail.

Reaching into a pool of water, Pan saw reeds growing there. The reeds were hollow, and he cut them into pipes of different lengths.

Sunday's Crossword Puzzle

A large crossword puzzle grid with numbers in the starting squares. The grid is 18 squares wide and 18 squares high.

A crossword puzzle answer key with two columns: HORIZONTAL and VERTICAL. Each entry includes a number and the corresponding word.
